Biblical Evidence for the Flat Earth | Part 1

The Earth is stationary:

- Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved. (1 Chronicles 16:30, KJV)
- Yahuwah reigneth, He is clothed with majesty; Yahuwah is clothed with strength, wherewith He hath girded Himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. (See Psalm 93:1.)
- Say among the heathen that Yahuwah reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: He shall judge the people righteously. (See Psalm 96:10.)
- Bless Yahuwah, O my soul. O Yahuwah my Elohim, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty. . . . Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever. (See Psalm 104:1, 5.)

The Earth and the heavenly bodies are enclosed by the firmament:

And Elohim said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. And Elohim made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. And Elohim called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day. (See Genesis 1:6-8.)

Here, we find that Yahuwah created the expanse of the heavens by separating "the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament." It could not be any clearer; there is water both below the firmament and above the firmament.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. (Psalm 148:4, KJV)

According to Genesis 1:6-8, there is water both below the firmament and above the firmament.

The word translated as "firmament" here is H7549:

H7549 - rāqîya'

BDB Definition:

- 1) extended surface (solid), expanse, firmament
- 1a) expanse (flat as base, support)
- 1b) firmament (of vault of heaven supporting waters above)
- 1b1) considered by Hebrews as solid and supporting 'waters' above

Note BDB's recognition that the firmament refers to the "vault of heaven supporting waters above," and adds that it was "considered by Hebrews as solid and supporting 'waters' above."

The root of H7549 (rāqîya') is H7554 \(rāqa'\), which is defined by Strong's as:

"A primitive root; to pound the earth (as a sign of passion); by analogy to expand (by hammering); by implication to overlay (with thin sheets of metal): —beat, make broad, spread abroad (forth, over, out, into plates), stamp, stretch" -Strong's Concordance

The firmament that holds back the waters above appears from its root word to be solid, as if hammered out like a sheet of metal.

Scripture goes on to state that that the heavenly bodies were placed inside this firmament.

And Elohim said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And Elohim made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. And Elohim set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and Elohim saw that it was good. (See Genesis 1:14-18.)

Scripture states in plain language that:

- (1) There is water both below the firmament and above the firmament. (See Genesis 1:6-8.)
- (2) The heavenly bodies were placed inside the firmament. (See Genesis 1:14-18.)

Biblical Evidence for the Flat Earth | Part 1

QUIZ

1. Scripture states that:
 - ☐ The Earth spins on an invisible axis and revolves around the sun.
 - ☐ The Earth revolves around the sun, but does not rotate on an axis.
 - ☐ The Earth spins on an invisible axis, but does not revolve around the sun.
 - ☐ The Earth is immovable and stationary.
2. 1 Chronicles 16:30 states: Fear before him, all the earth . . .
 - ☐ the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.
 - ☐ the world also shall be unstable, as it is easily moved.
 - ☐ the world also shall be stable as it moves.
 - ☐ the world also shall be unstable, as it continually moves.
3. Yahuwah created the expanse of the heavens by:
 - ☐ placing all of the waters in one place below the firmament
 - ☐ separating the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament
 - ☐ separating the land masses below the firmament from the clouds above the firmament
 - ☐ separating the water below the firmament from the infinite space above the firmament
4. Psalm 148:4 says:
 - ☐ Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye angels that be above the heavens.
 - ☐ Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye that be below the heavens.
 - ☐ Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be below the heavens.
 - ☐ Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.
5. According to Genesis 1:6-8, there is water below the firmament.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
6. According to Genesis 1:6-8, there is water above the firmament.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
7. The word translated as firmament in Genesis is Strong's H7549 (râqîya'). According to the BDB lexicon, this word refers to:
 - ☐ infinitely expanding space
 - ☐ the Milky Way Galaxy
 - ☐ the vault of heaven supporting waters above
 - ☐ the circuit of the heavenly bodies
8. The root word of firmament (râqîya') is Strong's H7554 (râqa'), which indicates that the firmament is:
 - ☐ liquid
 - ☐ solid
 - ☐ gaseous

- ☐ infinitely large
- 9. Where are the heavenly bodies in relation to the firmament?
 - ☐ above the firmament
 - ☐ beside the firmament
 - ☐ outside the firmament
 - ☐ inside the firmament
- 10. Scripture states in plain language that: (3 answers)
 - ☐ There is water below the firmament.
 - ☐ There is water above the firmament.
 - ☐ There is an infinitely expanding space above the firmament.
 - ☐ The heavenly bodies are outside of the firmament.
 - ☐ The heavenly bodies are inside the firmament.
 - ☐ The heavenly bodies are millions of miles away.

Biblical Evidence for the Flat Earth | Part 2

The firmament is solid in nature:

In the following passage, Elihu in his conversation with Job confirms what we have already learned from the Creation account in Genesis, namely that the firmament that separates the waters and houses the heavenly bodies is solid. Note that Elihu uses H7554 (râqa'), the root word of firmament, which means "by analogy to expand (by hammering); by implication to overlay (with thin sheets of metal): —beat, make broad, spread abroad (forth, over, out, into plates), stamp, stretch."

Hast thou with him spread out [H7554 - râqa'] the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass? (Job 37:18, KJV)

Now, let us examine a key passage often quoted by those advocating the globe model:

It is he that sitteth upon the circle [H2329 - chûg] of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in. (Isaiah 40:22, KJV)

The word used here to denote "circle" is H2329 (chûg). It quite literally means circle, circuit, or compass, and by extension can refer to the vault of the heavens. It does not mean "ball" or "sphere."

H2329 - chûg

BDB Definition:

- 1) circle, circuit, compass
- 2) (BDB) vault (of the heavens)

H2329 (chûg) is in no way indicative of a ball or sphere. Isaiah, under divine inspiration, was deliberate in his word choice here; he did not lack a word for "ball," as can clearly be seen in the following passage:

He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball [H1754 - dûr] into a large country . . . (Isaiah 22:18, KJV)

Isaiah, when referring to a ball penned H1754 (dûr) not H2329 (chûg). These are mutually exclusive expressions.

It is important to note here that H2329 (chûg) can refer to the "vault of the heavens" which, in context, seems the most fitting application of its usage in this passage. Let us look at it again:

It is he that sitteth upon the circle [H2329 - chûg] of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens [H8064 - shâmayim] as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in. (Isaiah 40:22, KJV)

This passage tells us that Yahuwah sits upon the vault of the heavens above the Earth¹ and that from His vantage point, the inhabitants of Earth appear like grasshoppers. Yahuwah, of course, is omnipresent and does not need to strain His eyes to see the inhabitants of Earth, but the picture that Isaiah is painting is quite clear.

This passage also tells us that Yahuwah stretches out the heavens [H8064 - shâmayim] like a "curtain" and spreads them out like "a tent." The word used here to denote "the heavens" is the same word used in Genesis to identify the firmament:

And Elohim called the firmament [H7549 - râqîya '] Heaven [H8064 - shâmayim]. And the evening and the morning were the second day. (See Genesis 1:8.)

What Isaiah is communicating then is that Father Yahuwah sits upon (or above) the firmament which is stretched over the Earth like a tent. (Scripture continually says that Yahuwah stretches out the heavens, or shâmayim: Psalm 104:2, Job 9:8, Isa. 40:22; 42:5; 44:24; 45:12; 51:13, Jer. 10:12; 51:15, Zec. 12:1)

WORLDSLASTCHANCE.COM

Isaiah tells us that Father Yahuwah sits upon (or above) the firmament which He stretches over the Earth like "a curtain" or "a tent." (See Isaiah 40:22.) This analogy would make no sense in the context of a globe.

Eliphaz, in the book of Job, agrees with this interpretation, for he says that Yahuwah walks upon the chûg (H2329), the same word used by Isaiah to denote the vault of heaven:

Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit [H2329 - chûg] of heaven [H8064 - shâmayim]. (Job 22:14, KJV)

J.P. Green's literal rendering of Job 22:14 -
"and vault [H2329] - the heavens [H8064] - He walks"

Is not El in the height of heaven [H8064 - shâmayim]? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! (See Job 22:12.)

Solomon, in his commentary on the Creation account, reinforces what we have learned thus far from the pen of Moses, Isaiah, and the author of Job:

When he prepared the heavens [H8064 - shâmayim], I was there: when he set a compass [H2329 - chûg] upon the face of the depth: When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth. (Proverbs 8:27-29, KJV)

Here, again, we find the same word used to identify the firmament, or the heavens: chûg (H2329)

"Praise ye Him, sun and moon: praise Him, all ye stars of light. Praise Him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. . . . for His name alone is excellent; His glory is above the earth and heaven." (Psalm 148:3-4, 13.)

Solomon, in the above passage, is restating what Yahuwah did during Creation week (See Genesis 1:2.) In context, it appears that Solomon is speaking specifically about where the physical firmament rests upon the deep, for he says plainly after speaking about the preparation of the heavens [H8064 - shâmayim] that the chûg (H2329) was set "upon the face of the depth." Another very reasonable interpretation is that Solomon, here, is referring to the outer circle of ice established by Yahuwah to contain the seas, for he goes on to say that:

[H]e gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth. (Proverbs 8:29, KJV)

Regardless of which of these interpretations one adheres to, one thing is certain: it is nowhere even hinted that the earth is a globe. All of the Biblical references examined so far irrefutably depict a flat earth enclosed by the firmament of heaven.

Let us now examine a most remarkable vision recorded by the prophet Ezekiel:

Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens [H8064 - shâmayim] were opened, and I saw visions of Elohim. . . . And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire. Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. . . . And the likeness of the firmament [H7549 - râqîya] upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. And under the firmament [H7549 - râqîya] were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from the firmament [H7549 - râqîya] that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings. And above the firmament [H7549 - râqîya '] that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahuwah. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. (See Ezekiel 1:1,4,5,22-28.)

Here, Ezekiel tells us:

1. The heavens [H8064 - shâmayim] were opened. (See Ezekiel 1:1.)
2. A whirlwind, a great cloud, a fire infolding itself came out of the north. (See Ezekiel 1:4.) The "north," in context here, seems to denote the zenith of the heavens, which were opened to him. Job agrees with this understanding: "He stretcheth out the north over the empty place . . ." (See Job 26:7)
3. Out of this whirlwind of fire came four living creatures. (See Ezekiel 1:5.)
4. After the living creatures come forth, Ezekiel sees the firmament [H7549 - râqîya ']' "stretched forth over their heads." Ezekiel likens the firmament to a "terrible crystal." (See Ezekiel 1:22.) The word translated as "crystal" here is H7140 \(qerach\) which means "frost, ice, ice crystal." This suggests that the water above the firmament is frozen (or at least has the appearance of ice). This is likely what the Apostle John also saw in his vision: "Before the throne there was a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back." (Revelation 4:6) The Greek word translated as "crystal" here is krustallos (G2930), which is "used in classical Greek for ice." (Vincent's Word Studies) Much more could be said about this, but it is not in the scope of this study to dig further into this particular goldmine.
5. A voice called to the living creatures from the firmament [H7549 - râqîya ']' that was above them. (See Ezekiel 1:25.)
6. Ezekiel beholds Yahuwah on His throne above the firmament [H7549 - râqîya ']. (See Ezekiel 1:26-28.)

Ezekiel, here, has painted a remarkably vivid picture of Yahuwah seated in glory upon His throne above the firmament, which appears to him like an ice crystal.

The prophet confirms this picture yet again in another vision:

Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament [H7549 - râqîya '] that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. (Ezekiel 10:1)

Isaiah, Eliphaz, Elihu, and Ezekiel all agree that Yahuwah is enthroned above a solid firmament. It appears that the Earth is in a literal sense Yahuwah's footstool:

Thus saith Yahuwah, The heaven [H8064 - shâmayim] is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest? (See Isaiah 66:1.)

¹ While this is an interpretation held by many Bible expositors, it might be fairly argued that the "circle of the earth" mentioned by Isaiah (Isa. 40:22) is actually a reference to the Earth's circular shape. This is certainly plausible. What the prophet is clearly not saying, though, is that the Earth is a globe.

QUIZ

1. The firmament is:
 - ☐ solid
 - ☐ liquid
 - ☐ gaseous
 - ☐ not Biblical
2. Job 37:18 asks: Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is . . .
 - ☐ weak, and as a tender plant?
 - ☐ strong, yet without a limit?
 - ☐ neither weak, nor strong?
 - ☐ strong, and as a molten looking glass?
3. It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth . . . (Isaiah 40:22) The word translated as 'circle' here is Strong's H2329 (chûg), which means:
 - ☐ ball, globe, sphere, and by extension, a planet
 - ☐ circle, ball, globe, and by extension, a dwelling
 - ☐ circle, circuit, compass, and by extension, the vault of the heavens
 - ☐ planet, star, galaxy, and by extension, a globe
 - ☐ a ball
4. Isaiah did not have a Hebrew word for 'ball.'
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
5. Isaiah, when describing the Earth and the area above which Yahuwah dwells, chose to use a Hebrew word for 'ball.'
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
6. Scripture states that Yahuwah 'stretcheth out the heavens as ____ (A) ____, and spreadeth them out as ____ (B) ____ to dwell in.' (Isaiah 40:22)
 - ☐ (A) a circle (B) a sphere
 - ☐ (A) a curtain (B) a tent
 - ☐ (A) a rubber band (B) a house
 - ☐ (A) a circle (B) a ball
7. The above description (#6) makes the most sense in the context of:
 - ☐ a globe
 - ☐ a flat earth
8. Eliphaz says that Yahuwah dwells at a great distance from the chûg (H2329), the same word used by Isaiah to denote the vault of heaven. (Job 22:14)
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False

9. Eliphaz says that Yahuwah walks upon the chûg (H2329), the same word used by Isaiah to denote the vault of heaven. (Job 22:14)
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
10. Is not El _____? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! (Job 22:12)
- ☐ millions of miles away
 - ☐ in Orion's nebula
 - ☐ seated beyond the ever expanding universe
 - ☐ in the height of heaven
11. The Bible says that the Earth is a globe.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
12. The Bible hints that the Earth is a globe.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
13. Ezekiel, in vision, beheld:
- ☐ the Earth circling the sun as it raced through the universe
 - ☐ Yahuwah's spirit encircling the globe
 - ☐ Yahuwah seated in glory upon His throne within the firmament
 - ☐ Yahuwah seated in glory upon His throne above the firmament
14. Isaiah, Eliphaz, Elihu, and Ezekiel all agree that Yahuwah is enthroned above the globe.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
15. Isaiah, Eliphaz, Elihu, and Ezekiel all agree that Yahuwah is enthroned above a solid firmament.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False

Biblical Evidence for the Flat Earth | Part 3

The Earth is flat:

In the book of Job, we find a most fascinating and insightful monologue. In chapter 38, Yahuwah appears to Job and begins questioning Him. One of the questions is especially pertinent to this study:

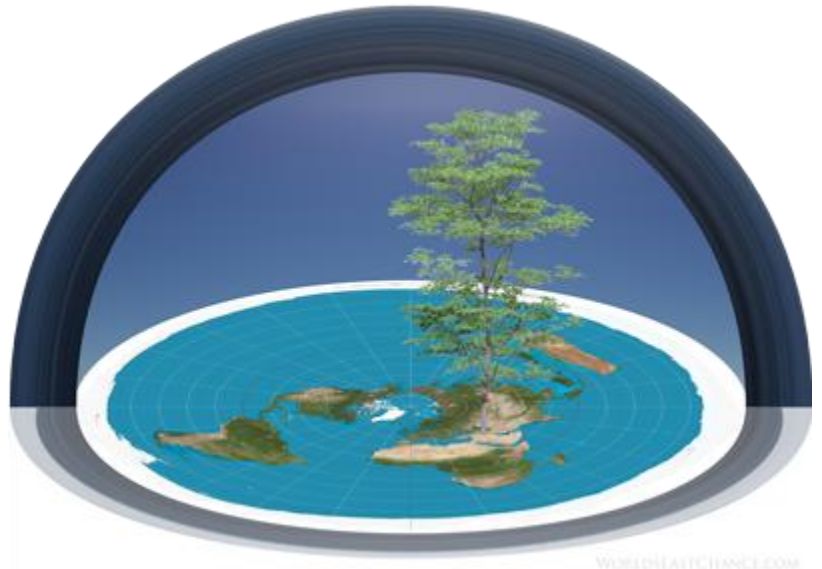

Hast thou perceived the breadth [H7338 - rachab] of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all. (Job 38:18, KJV)

The word, breadth, here is rachab \(H7338\), which means "breadth, broad or wide expanse." (BDB Lexicon) This seems like a perfectly legitimate question on a flat Earth. It makes no sense at all, though, in the context of a spherical Earth.

In the Book of Daniel, the details of Nebuchadnezzar's prophetic dream indicate that the Earth is flat:

These were the visions of my head while on my bed: I was looking, and behold, A tree in the midst of the earth, And its height was great. The tree grew and became strong; Its height reached to the heavens, And it could be seen to the ends of all the earth. (Daniel 4:10-11, KJV)

Nebuchadnezzar said that he dreamed of a tree that grew so tall that it could "be seen to the ends of all the earth." While this was just a dream, it is still indicative of a flat Earth, for only on a flat Earth would this be possible. This concept would be an utter impossibility on a globe.

Now, let us look to some of the glorious descriptions of the return of our loving Saviour:

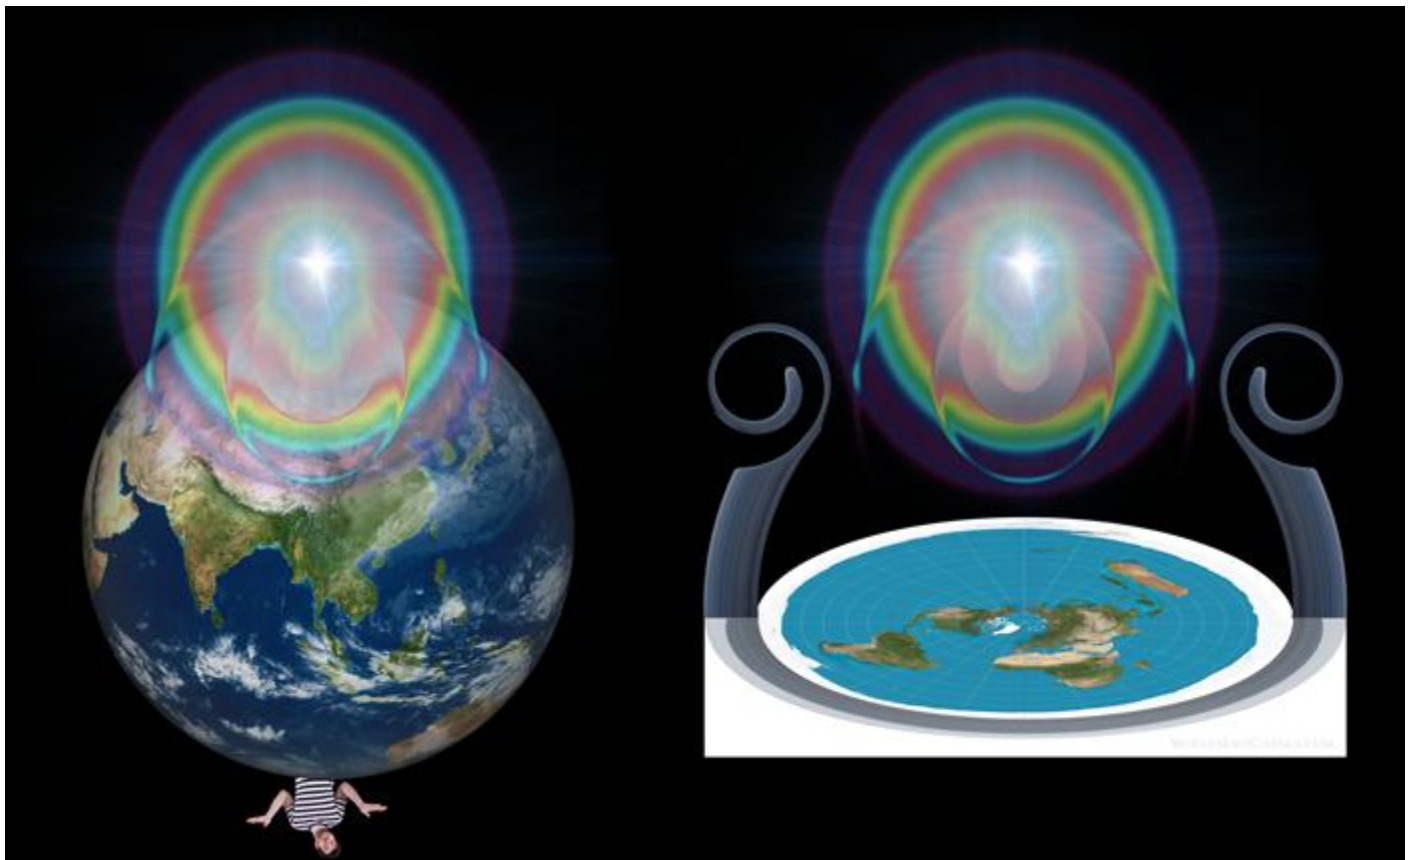

And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? (Revelation 6:12-17, KJV)

Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. (Revelation 1:7, KJV)

According to the John the Revelator:

1. The stars will fall to the Earth. (See Revelation 6:13.) John, like the other prophets who expound on this topic, clearly did not believe that the stars were gigantic bodies (much larger than the earth) millions of miles away. If this were the case, as modern astronomy purports, one star would be sufficient to annihilate the entire Earth upon impact. Note also that John say the stars "fell" to the Earth; he does not say that the stars were hurtled towards the Earth.
2. The heavens will then depart like a scroll. (See Revelation 6:14.) This is consistent with Scripture's ubiquitous depiction of the heavens being stretched out like a curtain or tent. This description would make no sense whatsoever if the Earth were a sphere.
3. Everyone on Earth will then see Yahushua coming in glory. (See Revelation 1:7.) This makes perfect sense on a flat Earth, but would be impossible if the Earth were a sphere.
4. The wicked and unrepentant will seek to hide themselves from the "wrath of the Lamb" and "the face of him that sitteth on the throne." (See Revelation 6:15-16.) When the heavens are rolled back "like a scroll," the wicked will behold the face of Him who sits upon the throne (above the vault of heaven, or "circle [H2329 - chûg] of the earth" Isa.40:33), and will seek to hide themselves.

Scripture says that, at the Second Coming of Yahushua, the heavens will depart "as a scroll when it is rolled together," and that "every eye shall see Him." (See Revelation 1:7; 6:12-17.) It would require a great deal of conjecture and manipulation to bring these passages into harmony with the globe model. When the sky is rolled back, the wicked will behold Yahuwah upon His throne, and will seek to hide themselves from His awesome presence.

It is the heavenly bodies that move, not the Earth.

Then spake Joshua to Yahuwah in the day when Yahuwah delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. (See Joshua 10:12-13.)

The text could not be any clearer: The "sun stood still in the midst of heaven." Joshua commands the sun and moon to stand still in the heavens. He does not command the Earth to stop spinning. As honest Bible students, we must acknowledge the clarity of this passage. Yahuwah forbid that we twist the Scriptures to agree with man's pseudo-scientific Copernican (sun-centered) theory, which contradicts Scripture from the very outset of Genesis. True science (testable and observable) vindicates the reality of the stationary Earth: Experiments, The Alleged Coriolis Effect.

In the book of Isaiah, we have an inspired record of how Yahuwah caused the sun to regress in the sky, causing the shadow of the sundial to move backwards:

Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down. (Isaiah 38:8, KJV)

Isaiah tells us in plain language that "the sun returned ten degrees." There is no question about it; Isaiah believed that it was the sun that moved, not the Earth.

Kind David also believed that it was the sun that moved:

The heavens declare the glory of El; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof. (See Psalm 19:1-6.)

Yahuwah forbid that we make the testimony of the prophets subservient to the theories of erring and deceitful men.

Solomon, more than 25 times in the book of Ecclesiastes, uses the phrase "under the sun" when referring to Earthly activities. Solomon clearly believed that the sun was moving above the Earth.

Yahuwah forbid that we make the testimony of the prophets subservient to the theories of erring and deceitful men.

QUIZ

1. In Job 38:18, Yahuwah asks Job what question?
 - ☐ ☐ Hast thou perceived the rotundity of the earth?
 - ☐ ☐ Hast thou perceived the curve of the earth?
 - ☐ ☐ Hast thou perceived the size of the earth?
 - ☐ ☐ Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth?
2. In Daniel 4, Nebuchadnezzar said that he dreamed of a tree that grew so tall that it could . . .
 - ☐ ☐ be seen by everyone in the Southern Hemisphere.
 - ☐ ☐ be seen by everyone in the Northern Hemisphere.
 - ☐ ☐ be seen to the ends of all the earth.
 - ☐ ☐ be seen by the inhabitants of Babylon.
3. Nebuchadnezzar's dream (Daniel 4) is clearly indicative of:
 - ☐ ☐ a round earth
 - ☐ ☐ a flat earth
 - ☐ ☐ a hollow earth
 - ☐ ☐ a spinning earth
4. Scripture says that, at Yahushua's Second Coming . . . (4 answers)
 - ☐ ☐ The stars will fall to earth.
 - ☐ ☐ The stars will be hurtled towards.
 - ☐ ☐ Shooting stars will annihilate the earth.
 - ☐ ☐ The heaven will depart as a ball when it is popped.
 - ☐ ☐ The heavens will depart as a scroll when it is rolled together.
 - ☐ ☐ The wicked will seek to hide themselves from the face of Him that sits upon the throne.
 - ☐ ☐ The righteous will seek to hide themselves from the face of Him that sits upon the throne.
 - ☐ ☐ Most people shall see Him.
 - ☐ ☐ A select few shall see Him.
 - ☐ ☐ Every eye shall see Him.
5. The details pertaining to Yahushua's Second Coming (#4) indicate that the earth is a globe.
 - ☐ ☐ True
 - ☐ ☐ False
6. The details pertaining to Yahushua's Second Coming (#4) indicate that the earth is flat.
 - ☐ ☐ True
 - ☐ ☐ False
7. Scripture depicts the stars as being incomprehensibly large bodies millions of miles away.
 - ☐ ☐ True
 - ☐ ☐ False
8. And _____, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? (Joshua 10:13)

- ☐ the sun appeared to stand still
- ☐ the sun stood still
- ☐ the earth stopped spinning
- ☐ earth reversed its orbit

9. So _____ in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. (Joshua 10:13)

- ☐ the earth stopped spinning
- ☐ the earth reversed its orbit
- ☐ the sun appeared to stand still
- ☐ the sun stood still

10. Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So _____, by which degrees it was gone down. (Isaiah 38:8)

- ☐ the sun returned five degrees
- ☐ the sun returned ten degrees
- ☐ the shadow of the sun returned ten degrees
- ☐ the sun returned fifteen degrees
- ☐ the earth reversed its rotation ten degrees
- ☐ the earth reversed its orbit ten degrees
- ☐ the sun appeared to return ten degrees

11. Psalm 19:6 states, in reference to the sun, that:

- ☐ His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it.
- ☐ He does not move from his appointed place in heaven, and he has no circuit.
- ☐ His going forth is an illusion created by the Earth's rotation on an invisible axis.
- ☐ He goes forth at 420,000 mph through the infinitely expanding cosmos as the Earth rotates at 1,000 mph and runs circles around him at 67,000 mph.

12. Solomon, more than 25 times in the book of Ecclesiastes, uses what phrase when referring to Earthly activities?

- ☐ circling the sun
- ☐ in view of the sun
- ☐ under the sun
- ☐ under the heavens

13. Who do you trust?

- ☐ The Bible
- ☐ Man

Empirical Evidence for the Flat Earth

Empirical Evidence supporting the Flat Earth:

Below, we will briefly touch on some of the empirical evidence supporting the Flat Earth. This is by no means intended to be an exhaustive list. It is not our goal here to go into great detail on these points, as there is already a plethora of information available online for those who are honestly seeking the truth.

- The apparent lack of curvature: If Earth were a ball 25,000 miles in circumference as NASA claims, then standing water must curve downward 8 inches per mile multiplied by the square of the distance. This equates to what should be an observable drop in the elevation of distant objects. Countless experiments have been carried out to test this, but all have failed to show curvature. Water is always perfectly level. It does not curve. (A few examples)
- The fact that surveyors, engineers, architects, naval officers, etc. do not take the Earth's curvature into consideration when plotting/planning their projects (While some claim that certain bridges were built with curvature in mind, the fallacy of this suggestion becomes obvious when one realizes the water under the bridge does not follow the bridge's curvature. Water always finds its own level; it does not curve.)
- The fact that airplane pilots do not have to continually drop the nose of their planes to keep them at the same altitude and prevent them from flying off into space (which would be absolutely necessary if they were flying hundreds of miles per hour around a sphere)
- The fact that rivers follow the least path of resistance, but are found in many parts of the world to flow up and over what would be many miles of curvature (Example: The Mississippi would have to ascend 11 miles before reaching the Gulf of Mexico.)
- While it was once thought that it was the curvature of the Earth (or water) that caused the hull of ships to disappear as they traveled away from the viewer, we now know that this is simply due to the "law of perspective." Entire ships that have long disappeared to the naked eye can easily be brought back into view with the aid of a telescope or similar magnification device.
- Gravity has never been proven; it must be accepted by faith in order to adhere to the globe model. Gravity is something that we have taken for granted as truth since we were children (because we were indoctrinated/brainwashed by the "educational" system), but in reality, this theory makes no sense whatsoever. Are we really to believe that there is a magical force called "gravity" which is so incomprehensibly strong that it can pin entire oceans down to the Earth, yet it cannot constrain the smallest cloud of smoke or even the tiniest winged insect? Are we really to believe that this imaginary force called "gravity" can make it rain upside down or cause crops to grow sideways? ...all without us being aware of it? (Incidentally, those who promote the theory of gravity also say that the Earth is spinning 1,000 mph, while traveling around the sun at 67,000 mph, and racing through the universe at 420,000 mph. Yet, you do not feel even the slightest hint of movement as you sit at your computer reading this article. This is preposterous.) Modern pseudo-science essentially says "Disregard your Bibles, your senses, your reason, and all repeatable, testable, and observable data... and blindly trust what you are told by your textbook." Those in worldly authority know well that, "If you tell a big enough lie and tell it frequently enough, it will be believed." (Adolf Hitler) Make no mistake; the Adversary has an agenda. (A short video: Gravity or Density?)

- The horizon always rises to the eye of the observer (even when flying in an aircraft 30,000 feet above the Earth). There is never a point in which the observer must look down to find the horizon of an ever curving sphere.
- The horizon always appears perfectly flat.
- The recorded difficulties of ship captains trying to navigate the "Southern Hemisphere" when assuming that the Earth is a sphere (If the Earth were a globe, the lines of longitude would get tighter as you moved from the equator towards the alleged "south pole." On the Flat Earth, however, the lines of longitude continually expand from the North Pole outward, meaning that they get wider as you move south.)
- The reports by explorers in the 1700s and 1800s estimating that they had traversed more than 50,000 miles when trying to circumnavigate Antarctica, which is actually the outer ice ring on the Flat Earth (e.g. James Cook, James Clark Ross, the British "Challenger" expedition) Bear in mind that, according to NASA, the globe is only 25,000 miles in circumference.
- The nonsensical flight patterns of commercial airliners (A short video: Down South)
- The fact that distant objects, even when perspective makes them appear beyond the horizon to the naked eye, do not appear to be leaning away from the observer (which should be the case if they are beyond the alleged point of curvature on a round Earth) On a ball Earth under the force of "gravity," hot air balloons should appear to tip backwards as they fly off into the distant sky away from the viewer, making the bottom of the basket increasingly visible.

Note the serpent's forked tongue in the NASA logo.

- Reports that Polaris (The North Star) has been seen as far south as 20 degrees South Latitude, yet the alleged South Pole star (Sigma Octantis) is not consistently visible from every meridian even at the equator (and other viewable constellation anomalies)
- The weather patterns and ocean currents make much more sense on the Flat Earth: Azimuthal Equidistant Map (Click on "earth" in the bottom left corner of the map shown at this link for more viewing options.) Incidentally, this is the same map that the United Nations uses in their logo.
- The fact that NASA (a militarized secret society) has never produced an actual photograph of the Earth, and continually labors to deceive...

NASA freely admits that their images are created with computer data; they are not photographs. When Data Visualizer and Designer, Robert Simmon, of NASA was asked, "What is the coolest thing you've ever done as part of your job at Goddard?" he answered:

"The last time anyone took a photograph from above low Earth orbit that showed an entire hemisphere (one side of a globe) was in 1972 during Apollo 17.

NASA's Earth Observing System (EOS) satellites were designed to give a check-up of Earth's health. By 2002, we finally had enough data to make a snap shot of the entire Earth. So we did. The hard part was creating a flat map of the Earth's surface with four months' of satellite data. Reto Stockli, now at the Swiss Federal Office of Meteorology and Climatology, did much of this work. Then we wrapped the flat map around a ball. My part was integrating the surface, clouds, and oceans to match people's expectations of how Earth looks from space.

That ball became the famous Blue Marble. I was happy with it but had no idea how widespread it would become. We never thought it would become an icon. I certainly never thought that I would become "Mr. Blue Marble." We have since updated the base maps by increasing the resolution and, for 2004, we made a series of monthly maps." (<http://www.nasa.gov/centers/Elohimdard/about/people/RSimmon.html>)

How was the "blue marble" image of Earth created? According to NASA, a "flat map" was created from alleged satellite data and then wrapped "around a ball." The image was then touched up to "match people's expectations of how Earth looks from space."

Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from Yahuwah, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding? (See Isaiah 29:15-16.)

Who do you trust? Yahuwah's prophets or the militarized secret society at NASA?

Thus saith the Yahuwah; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from Yahuwah. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

Blessed is the man that trusteth in Yahuwah, and whose hope Yahuwah is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. (See Jeremiah 17:5-8.)

Empirical Evidence for the Flat Earth

QUIZ

1. Countless experiments have been carried out to demonstrate the Earth's curvature, and all have succeeded.
 - ☐ True. The Earth's curvature has been repeatedly demonstrated.
 - ☐ False. The Earth's curvature has never been successfully demonstrated.
2. Countless experiments have been carried out to demonstrate the Earth's curvature, and all have failed.
 - ☐ True. The Earth's curvature has never been successfully demonstrated.
 - ☐ False. The Earth's curvature has been repeatedly demonstrated.
3. If Earth were a ball 25,000 miles in circumference as NASA claims, then standing water must curve downward _____.
 - ☐ 4 inches per mile
 - ☐ 4 inches per mile multiplied by the square of the distance
 - ☐ 8 inches per mile
 - ☐ 8 inches per mile multiplied by the square of the distance
 - ☐ 12 inches per mile
 - ☐ 12 inches per mile multiplied by the square of the distance
4. Water sometimes curves downward.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
5. Water always finds its own level.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
6. Surveyors, engineers, architects, naval officers, etc. take the Earth's curvature into consideration when plotting/planning their projects.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
7. The claim that some bridges are built with the Earth's curvature in mind . . .
 - ☐ is easily confirmed by the fact that the water under the bridge matches the curve of the bridge.
 - ☐ is easily falsified by the fact that the water under the bridge does not follow the bridge's curvature. Water is always level.
 - ☐ is proof that the earth is a sphere.
 - ☐ is proof that water sometimes curves.
8. Airplane pilots continually have to drop the nose of their plane to compensate for the Earth's curvature.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
9. Rivers follow the least path of resistance, but are found in many parts of the world to flow up and over what would be many miles of curvature (if the Earth were a sphere).
 - ☐ True

- ☐ False
- 10. It is the Earth's curvature that causes ships to disappear as they sail away.
 - ☐ True. Ships disappear as they sail beyond the curve of the Earth.
 - ☐ False. Entire ships that have long disappeared to the naked eye can easily be brought back into view with the aid of a telescope or similar magnification device.
- 11. Gravity is a proven fact.
 - ☐ True. Gravity has been repeatedly demonstrated in a laboratory.
 - ☐ False. Gravity is a theory that must be accepted by faith.
- 12. When flying in an aircraft, one must look down to observe the horizon of the earth below.
 - ☐ True.
 - ☐ False. There is never a point in which the observer must look down to find the horizon of an ever curving sphere. The horizon always rises to the eye of the observer.
- 13. The Earth's curvature can be seen on both ends of the ocean horizon viewed from a beach.
 - ☐ True.
 - ☐ False. The horizon always appears perfectly flat.
- 14. According to NASA, what is the Earth's circumference at the equator?
 - ☐ 10,000 miles
 - ☐ 25,000 miles
 - ☐ 75,000 miles
 - ☐ 100,000 miles
 - ☐ 150,000 miles
- 15. Explorers in the 1700s and 1800s (e.g. James Cook and James Clark Ross) estimated that they had traversed more than _____ miles when trying to circumnavigate Antarctica, which is actually the outer ice ring on the Flat Earth.
 - ☐ 1,000 miles
 - ☐ 5,000 miles
 - ☐ 10,000 miles
 - ☐ 20,000 miles
 - ☐ 30,000 miles
 - ☐ 40,000 miles
 - ☐ 50,000 miles
- 16. Distant objects, when perspective makes them appear beyond the horizon, appear to be leaning away from the observer.
 - ☐ True. This proves that we live on a ball.
 - ☐ False. This is never the case.
- 17. NASA (a militarized secret society) has produced millions of actual photographs of the Earth from space.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
- 18. How was the "blue marble" image of Earth created?
 - ☐ HD Cameras took the photograph from space.
 - ☐ A flat map was created from alleged satellite data, wrapped around a ball, and then touched up to match people's expectations of how Earth looks from space.

19. Who do you trust?

- ☐ Yahuwah's prophets
- ☐ NASA

The Jesuits: A Brief Introduction

Historic beginning of the Jesuits

As the Reformation of the sixteenth century began to triumph against the papacy, Rome summoned new forces, hoping to utterly destroy it. It was at this time that the order of the Jesuits was created. This military order proved to be the most cruel and powerful of all the champions of popery. Cut off from every earthly tie and human interest, dead to the claims of natural affection, reason, and conscience wholly silenced, they knew no rule, no tie, but that of their order, and no duty but to extend its power. The gospel of Yahushua had enabled its adherents to meet danger and endure suffering, undismayed by cold, hunger, toil, and poverty, to uphold the banner of truth in face of the rack, the dungeon, and the stake. To combat these forces, Jesuitism inspired its followers with a fanaticism that enabled them to endure like dangers, and to fight the power of truth with all the weapons of deception. There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy.

When appearing as members of their order, they wore a garb of sanctity, visiting prisons and hospitals, ministering to the sick and the poor, professing to have renounced the world, and bearing the name of Jesus, who went about doing good. But under this blameless exterior, the most criminal and deadly purposes were concealed. It was a fundamental principle of the order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, theft, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of State, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations. They became servants, to act as spies upon their masters. They established colleges for the sons of princes and nobles, and schools for the common people; and the children of Protestant parents were drawn into an observance of Roman Catholic rites. All the outward pomp and display of the Roman Catholic worship was brought to bear to confuse the mind, and dazzle and captivate the imagination; and thus the liberty for which the fathers had toiled and bled was betrayed by the sons. The Jesuits rapidly spread themselves over Europe, and wherever they went, there followed a revival of Catholicism.

To give them greater power, a bull was issued re-establishing the Inquisition. Notwithstanding the general abhorrence with which it was regarded, even in Catholic countries, this terrible tribunal was again set up by Catholic rulers, and atrocities too terrible to bear the light of day were repeated in its secret dungeons. In many countries, thousands upon thousands of the very flower of the nation, the purest and noblest, the most intellectual and highly educated, pious and devoted pastors, industrious and patriotic citizens, brilliant scholars, talented artists, skillful artisans, were slain, or forced to flee to other lands.

Excerpt from the Jesuit Oath:

"I do further promise and declare, that I will have no opinion or will of my own, or any mental reservation whatever, even as a corpse or cadaver (perinde ac cadaver), but will unhesitatingly obey each and every command that I may receive from my superiors in the Militia of the Pope and of Jesus Christ."

"That I may go to any part of the world whithersoever I may be sent, to the frozen regions of the North, the burning sands of the desert of Africa, or the jungles of India, to the centers of civilization of Europe, or to the wild haunts of the barbarous savages of America, without murmuring or repining, and will be submissive in all things whatsoever communicated to me."

"I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus."

(Note: This very oath was taken by Antichrist Pope Francis, a sworn Jesuit.)

Wolves in Sheep's Clothing

"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves." – Yahushua in Matthew 7:15 (NKJV)

"We came in like lambs and will rule like wolves." - Francesco Borgia, Third Jesuit Superior General.

The Jesuits were sanctioned in 1540 by Pope Paul III with one mandate: to defeat Protestantism and regain worldwide

Papal rule. To achieve this monumental task, they employ ever-adapting methods of pseudo-education, social programs, infiltration, and all wickedness that could possibly be conceived. Needless to say, they are achieving great success in their mission, which is climaxing with the present pope, Pope Francis, who held some of the highest positions in Argentina, including Provincial Superior in the Society of Jesus and Archbishop of Buenos Aires. He was made a cardinal by Pope John Paul II.

Over the last 400 years the Jesuits have succeeded in establishing the largest worldwide network of schools and universities.

These prominent schools and universities, have produced many well known alumni. Thus, the Jesuits have been able to shape and mould the thinking of many famous world leaders, and produce generations of political and religious leaders who were favorable to the Roman Catholic Church, and her doctrinal agenda.

The renowned British preacher, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, when referring to the church ministers that graduate from these universities said that "... they keep back a portion of the gospel ... having studied in the devil's new Jesuitical college." (Source: Charles H. Spurgeon "A Solemn Warning for All Churches," Sermon No. 68)

Jesuits sit at the top of the pyramid of secret societies:

"There are still ...[men and women] about the country, who will tell you, with grim gravity that, if you trace up Masonry, through all its Orders, till you come to the grand tip-top, head Mason of the world, you will discover that the dread individual and the Chief of the Society of Jesus are one and the same person!" (Source: James Parton, 1855, American Historian, The Black Pope, M.F. Cusack, London: Marshall, Russell & Co., 1896, p. 76.)

Given the above historic facts about the Jesuits, it is incredulous and most shocking to see the media and the world's religious and political leaders stampeding to endorse and praise Jesuit Pope Francis. We have no words to describe this unprecedented worldwide epidemic of memory loss towards Rome and her Jesuits.

The prescient warning of General Sherman is most appropriate to quote today:

"I would remind you of Webster's definition of a Jesuit: a designer, an intriguer. If the Church of Rome prevailed, the Pope would be the Universal King . . . The Jesuits are here to plot and scheme and, if possible, take from us the noble heritage of our civil and religious freedom. The rules of the Jesuit Order justify theft, licentiousness, lying, false-witness bearing, suicide and the murder of parents and other relatives. The greatest crimes in history committed against individuals and nations have been committed by the Jesuits . . . Wherever Jesuits are they have the torch to burn, the sword to slay, the inquisition to torture. They are the enemies of [Bible-believing] Christianity. They live for conquest, fortune and glory." (Source: General Sherman's Son: The Life of Thomas Ewing Sherman, S.J., Joseph T. Durkin, S. J., New York: Farrar, Straus and Cudahy, 1959, p. 186.)

It is our duty as followers of Yahuwah to expose Rome and her Jesuits, and to pray for the utter destruction of their evil deceit. Prayer is the only weapon we have against this veiled enemy we face today. Rome and her Jesuits are the greatest enemy of the Gospel and of humanity. However, we are assured in His prophetic Word that they will not prevail. The Harlot will be utterly destroyed prior to the Second Coming of Yahushua:

“And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.” Revelation 17:16.

Praise His name for ever and ever!!

The Jesuits: A Brief Introduction

QUIZ

1. Who is the most cruel of all the champions of popery?
 - ☐ The Freemasons
 - ☐ The Swiss Guard
 - ☐ The Cardinals
 - ☐ The Jesuits
2. Who is the most powerful of all the champions of popery?
 - ☐ The Freemasons
 - ☐ The Swiss Guard
 - ☐ The Cardinals
 - ☐ The Jesuits
3. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it is the Jesuits' studied aim to:
 - ☐ sacrifice all for the good of humanity
 - ☐ uplift Christ Yahushua in all things
 - ☐ overthrow Protestantism, and the re-establish papal supremacy
 - ☐ care for the sick, defend the oppressed, preach the gospel
4. The Jesuits are also known as:
 - ☐ The Society of Jesus
 - ☐ The Society of Rome
 - ☐ The Society of the Brethren
 - ☐ The Society of Hope
5. What is the fundamental principle of the Jesuits?
 - ☐ Put others first.
 - ☐ The end justifies the means.
 - ☐ The Bible alone is to be the rule of faith.
 - ☐ The pope's authority is second only to the Bible.
6. By this principle (#5), _____ is commendable when it serves the interests of the church in Rome.
(4 answers)
 - ☐ exposing political tyrants
 - ☐ lying
 - ☐ preaching
 - ☐ theft
 - ☐ becoming a monk
 - ☐ perjury
 - ☐ assassination
 - ☐ retiring to a monastery
 - ☐ distributing Bibles

7. Wherever the Jesuits go, there follows a revival of _____.
- ☐ Bible Study
 - ☐ Catholicism
 - ☐ Protestantism
 - ☐ Political and Religious integrity
8. Which statements can be found in the Jesuit Oath? (3 answers)
- ☐ I pledge to always put others before myself to the glory of Christ and His Father.
 - ☐ I do further promise and declare, that I will have no opinion or will of my own . . . but will unhesitatingly obey each and every command that I may receive from my superiors.
 - ☐ I furthermore promise to preach the gospel in every land, and to wage war against wickedness in high places.
 - ☐ I do further promise to and declare, that I will obey every principle laid out in Scripture, and will by all means available seek to serve the Father in spirit and in truth.
 - ☐ I furthermore promise . . . [to] make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth.
 - ☐ I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.
9. Jesuits take an oath to secretly or openly wage war against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals with the goal of exterminating them from the face of the whole earth.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
10. Jesuits take an oath to behave as a corpse with no will or opinion of their own.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
11. Jesuits take an oath to unhesitatingly obey their superiors.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
12. Jesuits take an oath to uphold the Bible alone as the standard of truth.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
13. Jesuits take an oath to hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive those they deem as heretics.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
14. Jesuits take an oath to provide for widows, help the weak, aid the downtrodden, and defend life in all of its stages.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
15. Jesuits take an oath to rip up the stomachs and wombs of heretical women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False

16. Jesuits take an oath to use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, . . . the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life . . . as they are directed.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
17. Pope Francis is a Jesuit.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
18. Francesco Borgia, the Third Jesuit Superior General, said:
- ☐ We came in like lambs for the slaughter.
 - ☐ We came in like lambs and will spread peace like doves.
 - ☐ We came in like lambs and will rule like wolves.
 - ☐ We came in like lambs and will go out like lions.
19. The Jesuits were sanctioned in 1540 by Pope Paul III with what mandates? (2 answers)
- ☐ to expose Papal apostasy
 - ☐ to promote the teaching of the Bible
 - ☐ to defeat Protestantism
 - ☐ to defeat oppression
 - ☐ to teach the immutable law of Yahuwah
 - ☐ regain worldwide Papal rule
 - ☐ to regain control of the world's oil supply
20. Pope Francis, as a Jesuit, held some of the highest positions in Argentina, including Provincial Superior in the Society of Jesus and Archbishop of Buenos Aires.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
21. Over the last 400 years, the Jesuits have failed to establish a significant stronghold in educational institutions.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
22. Over the last 400 years, the Jesuits have succeeded in establishing the largest worldwide network of schools and universities.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
23. It is our duty as followers of Yahuwah to:
- ☐ aid Rome and her Jesuits as they selflessly promote the infallibility of Scripture and work to prepare the world for the Second Coming of Yahushua
 - ☐ expose Rome and her Jesuits, and to pray for the utter destruction of their evil deceit

Copernicus & the Hegelian Dialectic

Coincidences of dates, agendas, and goals, connect the Jesuits to a massive deception over the true shape of the earth – all for the purpose of a multi-faceted end time delusion.

Conspiracy. The word has taken a hit in the last 20 years or so. Evidence supporting the existence of conspiracies is frequently dismissed with a sniff as nothing more than a loony theory. But people quick to dismiss circumstantial evidence of evil as nothing more than idle speculation frequently overlook one important point: when there is sufficient evidence to support a theory, it moves from the realm of conjecture and becomes a possibility. Then, a probability. And finally, a fact.

Startling new evidence implicates the Jesuit order as masterminds behind a deception spanning centuries. This article will trace the actions and influence of the Jesuits' involvement in perpetrating this lie. The purpose has been to change the perception of the masses regarding the earth, the authority of the Bible, the universe and the Creator's position in it. This change lays the groundwork for the overwhelming delusion shortly to come upon the world under the first woe, or fifth trumpet, prophesied in Revelation 9: demonic "alien" invasion.

Sometimes the evidence is circumstantial. However, circumstantial evidence can be very compelling and should not be dismissed. According to a retired federal judge:

There are, generally speaking, two kinds of evidence, direct and circumstantial. Direct evidence is testimony by a witness about what that witness personally saw or heard or did. Circumstantial evidence is indirect evidence, that is, evidence from which you could find that another fact exists, even though it has not been proved directly. There is no legal distinction between direct and circumstantial evidence as far as probative value; the law permits you to give equal weight to both...

*There is no reason to be prejudiced against evidence simply because it is circumstantial evidence. ...In fact, proof by circumstantial evidence may be as conclusive as would be the testimony of witnesses speaking on the basis of their own observation. Circumstantial evidence, therefore, is offered to prove a certain fact from which you are asked to infer the existence of another fact or set of facts. Before you decide that a fact has been proved by circumstantial evidence, you must consider all of the evidence in light of reason, experience and common sense.*¹

"In the big lie there is always a certain force of credibility; because the broad masses...more readily fall victims to the big lie than the small lie, since they themselves often tell small lies in little matters but would be ashamed to resort to large scale falsehoods. It would never come into their heads to fabricate colossal untruths, and they would not believe that others could have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously.

"Even though the facts which prove this to be so may be brought clearly to their minds, they will still doubt and waver and will continue to think that there may be some other explanation. For the grossly impudent lie always leaves traces behind it, even after it has been nailed down, a fact which is known to all expert liars in this world and to all who conspire together in the art of lying."

(Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf, Vol. 1, Ch. X.)

A globe earth is unproven pseudo-science but is believed worldwide. It is a huge lie that has taken on a life of it's own, being passed from generation to generation. Anyone who dares question it is mocked and ridiculed. Vladimir Lenin reportedly observed:
“A lie told often enough becomes the truth.”

Nowhere is this phenomenon seen as clearly as the belief that the earth is a sphere, spinning through space as it revolves around the sun—which itself is hurtling thousands of kilometers an hour through space. If a person even says the words “flat earth,” the hearer snickers. The (incorrect) mental image that springs immediately to mind is of a flat plain where, if one isn’t careful, a person could trip and fall off the edge.

WLC invites you to suspend your belief in a round globe. Carefully study the accumulated evidence for an enclosed earth that is not circling the sun.

It begins with a man...

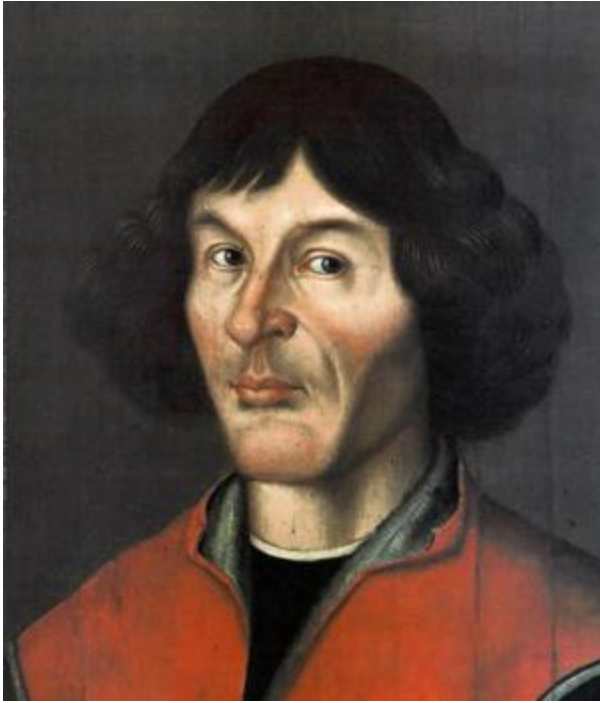

Nicolaus Copernicus

Copernicus is known for proposing a new and different model of the universe. Prior to Copernicus, most well educated people believed in the Ptolemaic model of the universe, which placed a flat, enclosed earth at the center of the universe. Copernicus suggested that the sun, not the earth, was the center of the solar system and the earth revolved around it. This “heliocentric” model is what is taught today, while the earlier “geocentric” model of everything revolving around the earth has been relegated to the historic dustbin.

Most people are aware that it was for promoting Copernicus’ ideas that Galileo Galilei was persecuted by the Roman Catholic hierarchy less than 100 years after Copernicus’ death. Accused of heresy, Galileo was forced to recant his beliefs and spent the last nine years of his life under house arrest. However, what most people do not know are the following significant facts:

If a person even says the words “flat earth,” the hearer snickers. The erroneous mental image that springs immediately to mind is of a flat plain where, if one isn’t careful, a person could trip and fall off the edge.

Nicolaus Copernicus, 1473-1543

7. Between 1539 and 1541, a 66-page letter and a preliminary chapter were published and distributed.
8. As Copernicus explained in a letter to Pope Paul III, he finally yielded to the insistent urging of Cardinal Schonberg, Bishop Giese of Culm, and other knowledgeable men, and agreed to submit his manuscripts for publication. A completed, published copy of his book was placed in Copernicus' hands just hours before his death on May 24, 1543.

It is important to note that Copernicus' theory of a heliocentric universe was well known to the upper levels of the Catholic Church in his lifetime. While Copernicus preferred to publish his theories after his death, it was at the persistent entreaties of high-ranking church officials that he finally agreed to publish his manuscripts. Furthermore, it was not the Catholics who initially rejected his views, but Martin Luther, Philip Melancthon and other Protestant leaders. Catholics themselves admit: "Opposition was first raised against the Copernican system by Protestant theologians for Biblical reasons."⁴

Question: why would Roman Catholic leaders persistently pressure Copernicus to publicize his theories of a heliocentric universe, theories for which they condemned Galileo less than 100 years later?

The answer is complicated, but reveals the motivation for what became a vast Jesuit conspiracy: it was necessary to change the public conception from an accurate understanding of the shape of the earth to a false belief so people would be more susceptible to the final delusion of an "alien" invasion.

Hegelian Dialectic

The Hegelian Dialectic is a tool used by governments and various change agents to influence public thinking and bring about a desired change. Simply put, a problem is artificially created. This problem draws out a pre-determined response. The response is then used to produce the desired solution.

1. Copernicus belonged to the Third Order of St. Dominic. When he wished to pursue a career in the church, he studied, among other things, astrology and astronomy.
2. While some sources maintain that Copernicus never took the vows of a priest, he was a cleric and never married. Furthermore, "the fact that in 1537 King Sigismund of Poland put his name on the list of four candidates for the vacant episcopal seat of Ermland, makes it probable that, at least in later life, he had entered the priesthood."²
3. When sought for advice about how to reform the calendar, Copernicus at first demurred to answer, but later wrote a series of letters to Pope Paul III containing accurate observations which "actually served, seventy years later, as a basis for the working out of the Gregorian calendar."³
4. For a long time Copernicus refused to publish his beliefs on a heliocentric universe. Finally, in 1531, he published a brief abstract, stating his theory in seven axioms. From this, the concept spread rapidly.
5. Two years later, Albert Widmanstadt lectured on the Copernican model before Pope Clement VII, an action for which he was rewarded.
6. In 1536, Cardinal Schonberg, who was Archbishop of Capua, urged Copernicus to fully publish his theory or, at the least, have a copy made at the Cardinal's expense.

Almost all major events in history employ the Hegelian Dialectic of: Problem – manufacture a crisis or take advantage of one already in place in order to get the desired Reaction of public outcry whereby the public demands a Solution which has been predetermined from the beginning.⁵

The Catholic hierarchy was presented with a perfect opportunity to lay the groundwork for a worldwide deception to bear fruit in the final generation. The deception required a small, globe earth, spinning through vast, limitless reaches of space, a space inhabited by aliens and other sentient life forms. This created doubt in the Bible as the inspired Word of Yahuwah, for the Bible presents the earth as unmoving. It also removed the Creator far away from His creation by presenting a universe unimaginably vast. The change agent to engineer this transformation in belief was the newly created Society of Jesus, commonly known as the Jesuits.

QUIZ

1. A globe earth is proven science.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
2. A globe earth is unproven pseudo-science.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
3. Prior to Copernicus, most well educated people believed in the _____ of the universe.
 - ☐ ever-expanding model
 - ☐ Ptolemaic model
 - ☐ Newtonian model
 - ☐ sun-centered model
4. The above model (#3) placed:
 - ☐ a flat, enclosed earth on the outskirts of the universe
 - ☐ a rotating globe earth in orbit around the sun
 - ☐ a stationary globe earth at the center of the universe
 - ☐ a flat, enclosed earth at the center of the universe
 - ☐ a flat earth in orbit around the sun
5. The model proposed by Copernicus put _____ at the center of the universe.
 - ☐ the sun
 - ☐ the moon
 - ☐ the earth
 - ☐ none of the above
6. Nicolaus Copernicus had no ties whatsoever to the Catholic Church.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
7. Copernicus wrote a series of letters to Pope Paul III which served, seventy years later, as a basis for the working out of the Gregorian calendar.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
8. Copernicus' sun-centered theory of the universe was well known to the upper levels of the Catholic Church in his lifetime.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False
9. It was against the wishes of high-ranking Catholic Church officials that Copernicus agreed to publish his manuscripts.
 - ☐ True
 - ☐ False

10. It was at the persistent entreaties of high-ranking Catholic Church officials that Copernicus agreed to publish his manuscripts.
- ☐ True
 - ☐ False
11. The Hegelian Dialectic formula is:
- ☐ (1) A problem is artificially created. (2) This problem draws out a pre-determined response. (3) The response is then used to produce the desired solution.
 - ☐ (1) A legitimate problem arises. (2) The problem draws out a pragmatic solution based on all of the available information. (3) The solution is then tested against Scripture.
12. As early as the 1500s, the Catholic Church, via the Jesuits and the outworking of the Hegelian Dialectic, has been aiming to: (4 answers)
- ☐ spread the gospel to the four corners of the world
 - ☐ lay the groundwork for a worldwide deception to bear fruit in the final generation
 - ☐ create doubt in the Bible as the inspired Word of Yahuwah
 - ☐ promote a pure religion before Yahuwah by visiting the fatherless and widows in their affliction
 - ☐ promote the non-Biblical view of a globe earth, spinning through a limitless space inhabited by aliens and other sentient life forms
 - ☐ promote and defend the Bible as the infallible Word of Yahuwah
 - ☐ remove the Creator far away from His creation by presenting a universe unimaginably vast

The Counter Reformation: Advancing the Lie

Jesuits & The Counter Reformation

Paul III Approves the Jesuits, © Jesuit Institute.

At the very time Copernicus was resisting appeals to publish his theory of a heliocentric solar system, the Roman Catholic Church was waging war on the new Protestantism. Catholics admit the “Counter Reformation” was “an effort to stem the tide of Protestantism by genuine reform within the Catholic Church.”⁶ The Jesuit order was established in 1540 under the approval of Pope Paul III—the very pope with whom Copernicus had corresponded regarding calendar reform and to whom Copernicus dedicated his book, Revolutions of the Heavenly Bodies!

It cannot be overstated: the Catholic Church was the force behind Copernicus, persistently urging the reluctant cleric to spread abroad his heliocentric theories that contradicted Scripture. The newly formed Jesuits were the perfect instruments to affect a clandestine operation, changing public perception of the authority of Scripture, the earth, and the Creator. The difference between the Jesuits and all other Catholic orders was that the Jesuits deliberately invited demonic spirits into their followers. This was done through the “spiritual exercises” of Jesuit founder, Ignatius Loyola. These spiritual exercises made them virtual mind-controlled slaves. In their own words, they were to be as a “corpse or cadaver” to “unhesitatingly obey” the will of their superiors.

When the Jesuits deliberately opened their minds to the influences of demons, it brought in a spirit of evil and a demonic intelligence that was unprecedented in Catholicism. It also made the Jesuits extremely successful in every undertaking. Because human life is so fragile, individual lives are so short, no one person, or even group of persons, can plan and implement the long-reaching evil that the Jesuits have perpetrated upon the world.

Guided and inspired by supernatural demonic intelligences, the Jesuits became infamous for their adeptness at deception and subterfuge; their ability to infiltrate governments and institutions of learning, and the influence they wielded, standing as advisors to kings and leaders in education. Working through government entities and education, they have been able to guide scientific research to further their own ends and present the biggest lie of all time: a globe earth.

Follow The Clues...

Following Copernicus’ reluctant publication of his theories, the Jesuit order produced more astronomers than probably any other specific demographic in Europe. That an ostensibly religious order should produce so many scientists is itself cause for surprise. That the scientists of said order were focused almost exclusively on only one area of science is further cause for question. A study of astronomers from the 16th through the 21st centuries reveals a veritable Who’s Who of leading astronomers who were also Jesuit priests. Even the modern civil calendar, the Gregorian calendar, was crafted by a Jesuit astronomer, Christopher Clavius.

As long as people accepted Scripture's cosmology of the earth as a fixed, immovable mass under a protective covering, there was no foundation on which to build lies designed to make the human mind doubt the word of Yah. By decreasing people's trust in the dependability of the Bible, it curiously increased confidence in the pope as Heaven's appointed authority on what to believe. The Jesuits have always been enemies of the Bible. Since the Catholic Church ranks papal decree and tradition above the Scriptures anyway, decreasing confidence in Scripture increases confidence in pastors, priests and the pope as authorities that know more than the common man can.

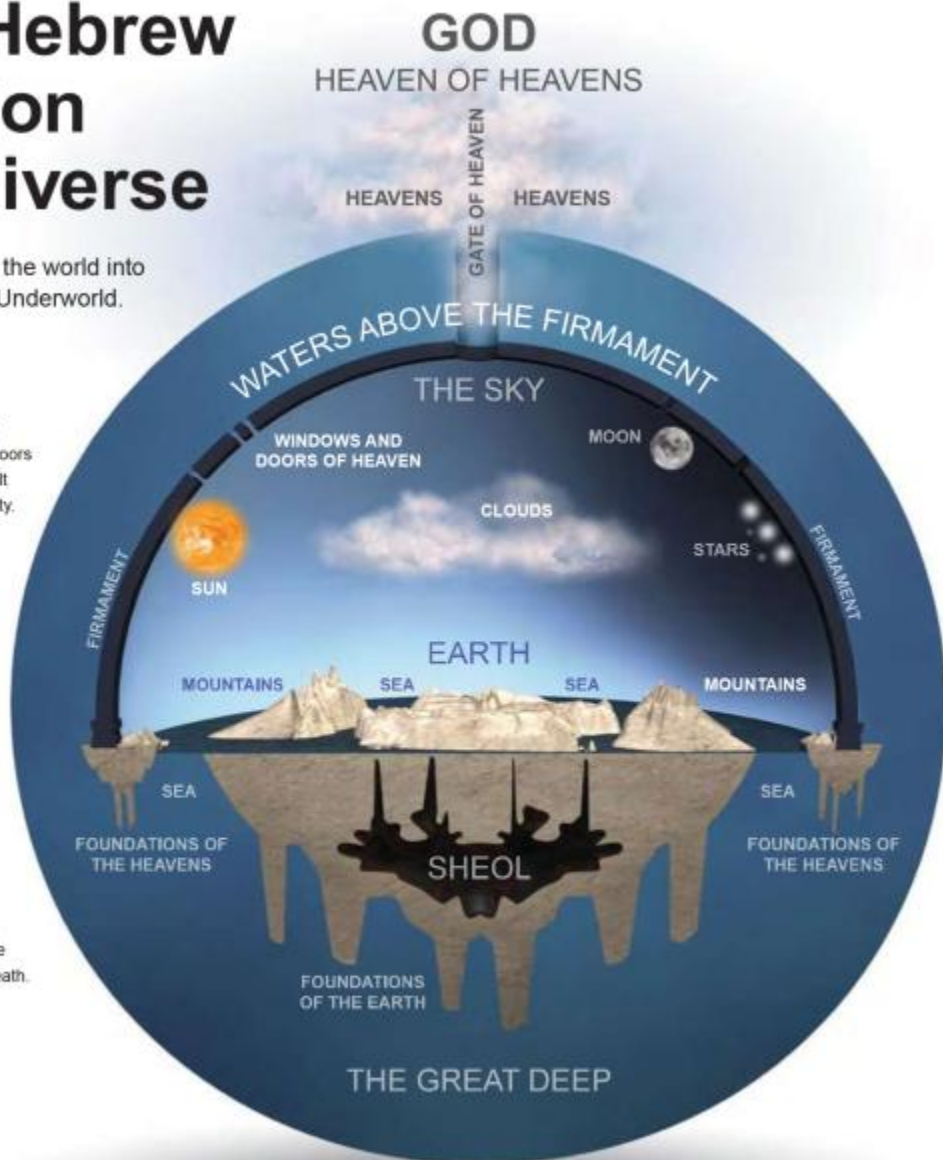

Ancient Hebrew Conception of the Universe

The ancient Israelites divided the world into Heaven, Earth, Sea, and the Underworld.

They viewed the sky as a vault resting on foundations—perhaps mountains—with doors and windows that let in the rain. God dwelt above the sky, hidden in cloud and majesty.

The world was viewed as a disk floating on the waters, secured or moored by pillars. The earth was the only known domain—the realm beyond it was considered unknowable.

The Underworld (Sheol) was a watery or dusty prison from which no one returned. Regarded as a physical place beneath the earth, it could be reached only through death.

Just as soon as the Biblical, geocentric model was set aside, a new explanation was required. A globe earth, traveling millions of miles around the sun, itself moving through illimitable realms of space, became necessary to explain the new heliocentric model of the universe. This, in turn, created an environment in which the writings of Charles Darwin found a receptive audience who took his elementary speculations still further. Just so long as people relied upon the Bible as the supreme authority, they would never have accepted Darwin's theories. But once science "proved" the Bible was wrong about something as basic as the shape and movement (or non-movement) of the earth, science sharply diverged from religious faith. Anything was possible! Nothing was above question, including the creation of the world and the existence of extraterrestrials.

“The Big Bang Theory is [today] the leading explanation about how the universe began. At its simplest, it talks about the universe as we know it starting with a small singularity, then inflating over the next 13.8 billion years to the cosmos that we know today.”⁷ The Big Bang Theory is atheist science’s answer to Genesis 1.

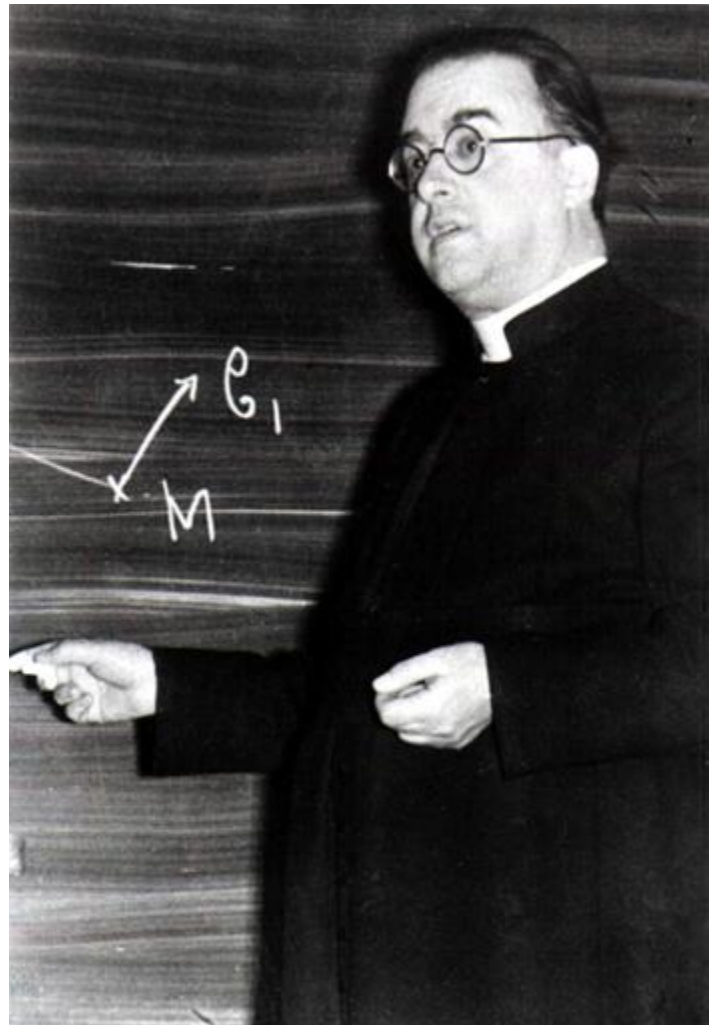

Father Andrew Pinsent serves on the Faculty of Theology at Oxford University. He holds advanced degrees in theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome as well as a doctorate in philosophy. He also holds a doctorate in particle physics from Oxford. This incredibly intelligent priest/scientist stated in 2015:

Being both a priest and a former particle physicist at CERN, I am often asked to give talks on faith and science. Quite often young people ask me the following question, “How can you be a priest and believe in the Big Bang?” To which I am delighted to respond, “We invented it! Or more precisely, Fr Georges Lemaître invented the theory that is today called the ‘Big Bang’ and everyone should know about him.”⁸

That is correct. The author of the Big Bang theory was none other than the Jesuit-trained priest, Father Georges Lemaître. On October 28, 2014, Sarah Kerr reported on Pope Francis’ address to the Pontifical Academy of Sciences. In his remarks, the pontiff “said the Big Bang theory is compatible with the Catholic Church’s teaching on creation.”⁹ Pope Francis stated: “The Big Bang, that today is considered to be the origin of the world, does not contradict the creative intervention of God; on the contrary, it requires it.”

Follow from cause to effect: without a globe earth circling the sun through the far reaches of space, you do not have the Big Bang. Without the Big Bang, you do not have evolution. Without evolution, you are more likely to accept creation as an act of intelligent design by a divine Creator. The Roman Catholic Church does, in fact, accept evolution. In her report, Kerr further stated: “The pope said it is possible to believe in both, insisting God was responsible for the Big Bang from which all life evolved.”¹⁰

Acceptance of evolution and its integral law of “survival of the fittest,” gave rise to the bloodbaths of the 20th century in which millions lost their lives. Numerous researchers have established incontrovertible connections between the Vatican, Swiss bankers, and the Nazi party.¹¹ Karlheinz Deschner goes so far as to say there was outright collaboration between the Vatican and the Nazi party.¹² Regardless of the level of collaboration between the Vatican and the Nazis, (not to mention the involvement of the American Bush dynasty) what happened after World War II is even more significant.

Operation Paperclip smuggled hundreds of Nazi scientists, including top SS officers on trial for war crimes, into the United States for use in America's Cold War space race.¹³ One of these, Nazi-party member, Wernher von Braun, was promoted to head up NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center, in which position he headed the development of the Saturn V booster rocket to "win the space race" with the Soviets.

Under Operation Paper Clip, some 350 German scientists and former intelligence agents were given visas and well-paying jobs. Many of those scientists had questionable pasts. Braun himself had been an active member of the Nazi party, and his colleague at NASA, Dr. Hubertus Strughold, a specialist in aviation medicine, had performed experiments on concentration camp inmates.¹⁴

The purpose of this massive—and illegal—undertaking appears to have been for the establishment of a worldwide authority on all things relating to space and astronomy. NASA became the public face of space. It has long acted as a front providing an unsuspecting world with pseudoscience, legitimized by the backing of the US government. (For more information on the fraudulent legacy of NASA, see "The Occult Roots of NASA & The Ongoing Fraud," Part 1, Part 2, and Part 3.)

NASA is its own monopoly. It controls the dissemination of public information on astronomy while hiding facts it does not want the public to know. While many countries and universities have observatories, it is always the statements, photographs, and "discoveries" of NASA that make the news headlines. With NASA in charge of the flow of astronomical information to the public, it appears that the Vatican has stayed a central player in the real, true astronomy that is not being released to the public.

For hundreds of years, the Vatican has owned the most telescopes and observatories of any organization: private, university or government. NASA and the Vatican jointly own LUCIFER, the world's largest binocular telescope. According to the official Vatican website, the Vatican observatory "is one of the oldest astronomical institutes in the world." And yet where are the photographs? Where are the news releases of the latest discoveries? What have the Jesuit astronomers been doing for the last 500 years? Only they know.

NASA's public releases of information, promoting the idea of an ever larger, expanding universe of incomprehensible size, has led naturally to the supposition that there must be alien life on other celestial bodies. After all, if the same serendipitous events that produced life on earth, existed everywhere due to the Big Bang, why couldn't intelligent life have evolved elsewhere as well? In combination with Hollywood and the science-fiction genre, NASA has created an environment in which contact with extraterrestrial life forms is as desired as it is feared.

A recent book may hold the key to understanding the final step in this centuries long conspiracy to delude the final generation.

LUCIFER & the First Woe

LUCIFER, Aliens & The Coming Of Christ

Tom Horn and Chris Putnam, authors of Petrus Romanus: The Final Pope Is Here, recently published a mind-boggling book in which they allege the Vatican is actively looking for extra-terrestrial life with their new LUCIFER telescope. The book, Exo-Vaticana: Petrus Romanus, Project LUCIFER, and the Vatican's Astonishing Exo-Theological Plan for the Arrival of an Alien Savior, claims the Vatican is waiting for an extraterrestrial saviour. In researching their book, Horn and Putnam were granted permission to visit the observatory on Mount Graham, which hosts the Vatican Advanced Technology Telescope (VATT), in September 2012.

Not only were they able to discuss the study of deep space with the Jesuit astronomers there, but they also gained access to one the top Vatican astronomers in Rome.

The Vatican's Large Binocular Telescope on Mt. Graham

Horn said Brother Guy Consolmagno, who has also been called the papal astronomer, told the authors some astounding information during five interviews.

"He says without apology that very soon the nations of the world are going to look to the aliens for their salvation", said Horn.

Consolmagno also gave the authors private Vatican documents which reveal much of the thinking of high-level theologians and astronomers within the Church.

Horn said these documents show that they believe that we are soon to be visited by an alien savior from another *world.*¹⁵

These statements are not that shocking when the Vatican's ever evolving stance on science and space is understood. On May 12, 2014, Pope Francis expressed a willingness to baptize extraterrestrials who expressed a desire for baptism. While the comment was clearly made in a joking, tongue-in-cheek manner, it made international headlines with one headline crowing: "Cool Pope Is So Cool That He's Willing To Baptize Martians!" The net result was that it removed the idea from the realm of science fiction and transferred it to the realm of possibility. By the very act of talking about it as though it might be a possibility, the mind becomes more accustomed to the concept.

After the Vatican hosted a five-day conference on the possibility of extraterrestrial life, Roman Catholic priest, Father Jonathan Morris, appeared on (US) Fox News to answer some questions. The priest's statements reveal the hidden agenda pursued by the Jesuits since the days of Copernicus. When asked how it would change church doctrine if it could be established that intelligent extraterrestrial life actually exists, Morris replied:

That would definitely make us go back and say, “Maybe our understanding of perennial [lasting for an indefinitely long time] truths needs to be updated.” Now, the way we look at it is this: it’s not about whether God was the Creator but rather how He created. It’s not a question of whether original sin, this Adam and Eve story, is true or not, but our understanding of how that played out. So, it’s growing in our understanding of perennial truths.¹⁶

And there it is: questioning the cosmology of the earth, leads to the questioning of Scripture and Scripture’s Author. It prepares the way for the overwhelming deception prophesied in Revelation 9.

The First Woe

Earlier, it was stated: The Catholic hierarchy was presented with a perfect opportunity to lay the groundwork for a worldwide deception to bear fruit in the final generation. The purpose for this entire intricate, multi-layered deception spanning centuries is to deceive the world’s masses in order to create a desired outcome. It is the old Hegelian Dialectic (explained earlier) all over again. In order to usher the world into a united One World Religion with the pope reigning supreme over all, the devil will create a PROBLEM. This problem will cause a REACTION among the citizens of earth who will demand a SOLUTION. The solution is a predetermined outcome.

The all-knowing, wise Creator has revealed this culmination of deception in Revelation 9:

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of [Yah] in their foreheads.

And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them...and their power was to hurt men five months.

And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. (Revelation 9:1-6;10-11, KJV)

The key to unlocking this prophecy is found in the phrase “bottomless pit.” It comes from the Greek word, abussos, and is the exact same word translated “deep” in Luke 8:31 when the demons begged to be sent into the

[7 Trumpets of Revelation |
Demonic Invasion of 1st Woe
\(Trumpet 5\)](#)

swine rather than sent back to the bottomless pit. It is the same as the English word, abyss. The star, fallen from Heaven, is a clear reference to Lucifer/Satan. When he is therefore given the “key to the bottomless pit” he releases hordes of demons upon the earth.

This event, characterized as a “woe” by the Revelator, will appear to be an alien invasion from outer space. These evil angels will have a very distinct appearance, described in Scripture. As extraterrestrials, they will launch a horrific attack upon the world that will last five months, or 150 days.

During this time, Yahuwah’s people, those who have accepted His seal, will be protected from these evil entities. This is not the final seal given to protect the righteous from the seven last plagues. However, protection from demonic attack will be provided all who love and obey the Creator. All who have knowingly rebelled against Heaven will suffer greatly under the pitiless demons.

The trumpets, of which the first woe is the fifth, are not the same as the seven last plagues. The trumpets come before the close of probation. They are both a solemn warning and a merciful invitation. They warn that probation for all is soon to close and they invite every soul on earth to accept Yahuwah’s free gift of eternal life. Those who heed the warning of the trumpets will show their love and gratitude by bringing their lives in submission to His will. They will choose to live in obedience to all the requirements of His divine law, including that of the fourth commandment.

The trumpets are a loving gift to those who soon must stand in the sight of the Holy Creator without a Mediator following the close of probation. This series of events was foretold almost 2,000 years ago, well before there was a Roman Catholic Church, let alone a Jesuit order. It shows as nothing else could, the Father’s foreknowledge. While it warns of the swiftly coming close of probation, it also will inspire faith and trust in He who foresaw these calamitous events nearly two millennia before they occurred. The remnant will need strong faith in the Father’s love as these events unfold. As they see the trumpets sound, one by one just as prophesied, their faith and courage will be strengthened and they will be led to rely with even more firmness on the promises of He who cannot lie.

Alien invasion is the manufactured PROBLEM. The natural REACTION, arising from every suffering soul on earth, will be for a man to stand in the gap, to negotiate a peace treaty with the invaders. As with every other time the Hegelian Dialectic has been used to manipulate events and shape world politics, the problem, the reaction, and the solution will all be predetermined and under the direct control of Satan himself.

Pope Francis, as "the eighth king" and final pope, will be the world’s savior to step forward and negotiate peace. As a Jesuit, he has already come under the direct control of demons via the spiritual exercises of Ignatius Loyola. He has also established sympathetic ties with other religions. Therefore, he is the logical choice to be mankind’s representative, establishing a peace treaty with these invaders from outer space.

This treaty will:

1. End the war exactly 150 days after it started;
2. Place the pope as mankind’s representative at the head of the New World Order;
3. Place the pope as mankind’s savior at the head of a new, unified One World Religion.

Pope Francis, as "the eighth king" (Revelation 17) and final pope, will be the world’s savior to step forward and negotiate peace. As a Jesuit, he has already come under the direct control of demons via the spiritual exercises of Ignatius Loyola.

Read the Demonic Jesuit Oath!

As “savior of the world,” the pope will then be in the perfect position to establish one worship day for all, Sunday, calculated by the pagan/papal calendar. This unification of the world under one government and one religion will appear, under the circumstances, to be logical and all who want the easy way out will cooperate in participating and enforcing this new one world theocracy. All heads of state will hand their sovereignty over to the pope as Scripture explicitly spells out: “And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.” (Revelation 17:12-13, KJV)

This is what precipitates the final struggle between the forces of good and evil. Under threat of continued extraterrestrial aggression, the peoples of earth will unite to wage relentless war on all who will stand for truth. Those conscientious few who place the word of Yah above all earthly mandates will be seen as dangers. Individual religious liberty will be sacrificed on the altar of expediency and it will be argued that it is better for a few to perish rather than the entire world be plunged into suffering under continued alien aggression.

When the fifth seal was opened, John “saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of [Yahuwah], and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a loud voice saying, How long, O Master, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?” (Revelation 6:9-10) The answer given is portentous. It foreshadows the intense persecution that shall come upon the righteous after the first woe when many will be martyred for their faith when they refuse to unite with the rest of the wicked world in worshipping on a day that pays homage to the great Deceiver. “And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.” (Revelation 6:11, KJV)

Get Ready! Get Ready! Get Ready!

This deception would never work if people knew the true shape of the earth and the universe. Hence, the need for a massive re-education program.

For 500 years, this Jesuit conspiracy has taught a globe earth, circumnavigating the sun—itself spinning around the center of an immense galaxy that is likewise speeding through limitless space. Within this immense realm, it is presumed there are other species of intelligent life that inhabit other worlds. These lies will culminate in the climactic “alien invasion” prophesied in Revelation 9. The ultimate deception will occur when the pope negotiates a peace treaty on behalf of the human race with demons. As Satan’s representative, he will assume leadership of the world and, in the person of the pope, Satan will have achieved his long-desired goal as ruler of the earth.

The first woe, faithfully described by the Revelator, reveals the opening sequence of events in Satan’s end game to deceive the world just before the Second Coming of Yahushua. For 500 years, the Jesuits have worked to convince the human race that the world is a globe. Such a belief has brought with it a whole host of companion errors all for perpetrating the ultimate con game: an alien invasion that will allow this Jesuit pope to unite the world under one government and one religion.

And yet, the first woe is just the beginning. It is but the opening salvo in this climax of the ages. It lays the foundation for an even greater fraud that will follow quickly....
