"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For he hath visited and redeemed his people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." # NEVER-ENDING LAST DAYS?

by Pastor Peter J. Peters

"These are the last days" cries a radio preacher who calls himself a prophet of God; so read numerous newsletters and religious publications; so teaches the television evangelist with a book on prophecy for sale; so say and think concerned citizens throughout the land. So has it been said for 2,000 years.

As the Scriptures say, there is nothing new under the sun and so it is with men and their last days theology. Gary DeMar in his book Last Days Madness, shows the list of such men is long and dated, going back as early as the second and third centuries. For example, there was Montanus, a self appointed prophet of God predicting the end.

"In the third century, a prophet called Novatian gathered a huge following by crying, "Come, Lord Jesus!" Donatus, a fourth-century prophet, commanded attention when he stressed that only 144,000 people would be chosen by God. He found this magic figure in Revelation 14:1 ( a verse the Jehovah's Witnesses use to proclaim their own version of his heresy). Both Novatian and Donatus were branded as heretics by the Church."

Martin Luther wrote in 1532:

"The last day is at hand. My calendar has run out. I know nothing more in my Scriptures."

As the year 1000AD drew near, the old St Peter's basilica was thronged with weeping, trembling masses awaiting the end of the world. Then there was a similar conviction in 1100, 1200, and 1245.

"In 1531, Melchior Hofmann announced that the second coming would take place in the year 1533... Nicholas Casa held that the world would not last past 1734."

The list of present day "last days proclaimers" if properly researched and compiled, would probably be staggering. Here are just a few:

Edgar C. Whisent put out a book, 88 Reasons Why the Rapture is in 1988.

In 1992, Charles R. Taylor in Bible Prophecy News said: "What you are starting to read probably is my final issue of Bible Prophecy News, for Bible prophecy fulfillment indicates that Jesus Christ our Lord will most likely return for us at the Rapture of the Church before the fall 1992 issue can be printed."

1994? was a writing by Harold Camping predicting Jesus would return sometime in the fall of 1994.

David Allen Lewis wrote a book Prophecy 2000: Rushing to Armageddon. Dave Hunt wrote Peace and the Rise of Antichrist. Also, let's not forget Hal Lindey's most profitable book The Late Great Planet Earth with a sale of 25,000,000 copies.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE TEACH CONCERNING LAST DAYS?

If that question was properly answered, the last days proclaimers wouldn't sell many books or reap much in donations to stay on the airwaves.

LAST DAYS existed 2000 years ago, according to the Bible. Consider the words of Hebrews 1:1-2,

"God who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his son..." (KJV, emphasis added, PP)

Now here is a Bible question for you: According to Hebrews 1:1-2, the writer of Hebrews considered the last days to be:

- a) something coming in the distant future (like 2000AD)
- b) the very last days in which he wrote the words "hath in these last days."
- c) Impossible to understand and predict without reading a book on prophecy or hearing a self-proclaimed prophet.

Let's consider another Bible passage.

"But Peter, taking his stand with the eleven, raised his voice and declared to them: 'Men of Judea, and to all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give heed to my words. For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only the third hour of the day; but this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel: 'And it shall be in the last days, (emphasis added) God says, That I will pour forth of My Spirit upon all mankind; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions; and your old men shall dream dreams...' " (Acts 2:14-17), (NASV)

Now, let's have another Bible test question. According to Acts 2:14-17, the apostle Peter considered the very day he spoke to be those days that Joel had prophesied of and called last days.

- a) True
- b) False
- c) Impossible to tell from text.

The correct answers to these two questions are self evident just as it's self-evident these two Scriptural passages teach the last days existed nearly 2000 years ago.

2 Timothy 3:1 reads:

"This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come." (KJV, emphasis added)

This passage associates perilous times with last days and speaks of it as something yet to come in the future, ie, "perilous times shall come."

2 Peter 3:3 also seems to indicate the last days as something in the future.

"Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days, scoffers, walking after their own lusts." (KJV).

How can it be that last days existed at the time of the writing of Hebrews 1:1-2 and Acts 2:17 and yet also be days yet to come in the future? The answer to that comes in understanding the Bible meaning of last days.

As a rule, when men use the term last days, they think in terms of the end of the world. Billy Graham, for example, wrote:

"If you look in any direction, whether it is technological or physiological, the world as we know it is coming to an end. Scientists predict it, sociologists talk about it. Whether you go to the Soviet Union or anywhere in the world, they are talking about it. The world is living in a state of shock."<sup>4</sup>

The Bible term, "last days," does not carry this meaning. That is why the last days could be at one time and then another.

To prove that the Bible meaning of last days is not the end of the world, let's look at how the term is used in an Old Testament Bible passage, Ezekiel chapter 38. It's a controversial passage dealing with the invasion by Gog. We'll not deal with the who, what, where, why of the invasion or if it's already happened, but with the when. Verse 16 tells us when. "It will come about in the last days that I shall bring you against my land." So then what happens? Does the world end?

Reading in chapter 38 and 39 concerning that invasion and conflict, one learns how it concludes and that the world continues on. Verse 22 of Ezekiel 39 says "And the house of Israel will know that I am the Lord (Yahweh) their God from that day onward." Note the words "from that day onward," showing us the world did not end in the last days of Ezekiel 38.

Once one understands that the Bible term, last days, does not mean the end of the world, that the last days existed nearly 2000 years ago, and would exist some time in the future, then one can move on to another important Bible truth concerning last days.

THERE ARE MORE THAN ONE LAST DAYS

In other words, there have been last days and there will be last days. If the phrase "last days" does not mean the end of the world, then what does it mean the end of? How about the end of an era or age! Hebrews 6:5 speaks of an "age to come." If an age will end prior to the coming of a new age; so there would be last days of an age!

1 Corinthians 10:11 says: "Now these things happened unto them by way of example and they were written for our admonition upon whom the ends of the ages are come." (NASV, emphasis added)

The King James Version uses the word "world" instead of "ages." "Upon whom the ends of the world are come." The Greek word is "aion" and according to Holman's Exhaustive Concordance, means "continued duration, a space of time, an age" (emphasis added). This passage clearly teaches there are ages and the end of ages had come upon those people living in Corinth, 2000

Pessimillennialist's Hymn

This is the devil's world
The end is very near
I'm waiting for the by-and-by
So I'll sit here on my rear.

This is the devil's world
I just sit here in my pew
Don't want to use this brain of mine
'Cuz that's too hard to do.

This is the devil's world
I rest me in the thought
Of freedom from God's Holy Law
A freedom I've long sought.

This is the devil's world
The Kingdom's future tense
God's Word won't transform this world
Oh, blessed impotency!

This is the devil's world
They're legalists, you know
They're also in cahoots with Rome
The essays told me so!

This is the devil's world
See my trembling hand
Dominion's such a scary thing
There's giants in the land!

This is the devil's world
What else can I do?
If you shared my eschatology
You would be frightened too.

This is the devil's world
So why then should I fret?
The battle is a losing one
So I haven't signed up yet.

This is the devil's world
He is alive and well
Soon we'll all be raptured out
Or so says brother Hal.

- Greg L. Durand (1995)

"The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ (anointed), and He shall reign for ever and ever." Rev 11:15, NKJV

"(The Father) raised Him from the dead, seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly far above all rule, authority, power, dominion, and every name ... not only in this age, but also in the one to come." (Eph 1:20-21).

years ago.

It's unfortunate that this word is usually translated as 'world' in the KJ translation as in most instances it is far more accurate to translate it as "age".

Take for example Hebrews 9:26. The KJV says:

"For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself."

The New American Standard says: "...but now once at the consummation of the ages He has been manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself."

Young's Literal Translation says: "...at the full end of the ages..."

Noah lived in the last days, i.e. the end of an age. They were last days for the people to repent and be saved from destruction. Last days of an age wherein wickedness and sin had culminated.

Moses lived in the last days or in an end of an age. We have heard the phrase "last days of the Roman Empire." Well Moses lived in the last days of Pharaoh's Egyptian Empire. They were the last days for innumerable first born male children.

The apostles and their disciples lived in the last days just as Peter stated in Acts 2:16,17. Days just prior to the destruction of Jerusalem which ended the age of the old Levitical Priesthood and temple sacrifices. It was not only the end of an age but the "consummation of the ages." (Hebrews 9:26, NASV)

Many New Testament Scriptures pertain to the end of that age or the last days that existed 2000 years ago. John the Baptist warned the establishment of his day (Pharisees and Sadducees) of the end by saying,

"And the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire." (Matt 3:10, NASV)

A MOST IMPORTANT POINT CONCERNING LAST DAYS

So far, you have read some very important truths concerning the subject of last days. Let's briefly summarize them.

- 1) Men have been crying out and warning that we are in the last days for nearly 2000 years.
- 2) Last days existed 200 years ago and were to exist in the future. How can this be? Because....
- 3) There are more than one last days.
- 4) Last days means the end of an age not the end of the world.

These are important truths to understand but more important is this: PEOPLE SURVIVED THE LAST DAYS. You see, not only did Noah live in the last days but he lived beyond them as well. Moses and his people lived in the last days and beyond. The

the apostle's disciples lived in the last days and beyond. These people were not just SURVIVORS but OVERCOMERS and CONQUERORS! People of faith and hope.

The damnable consequences of this false modern day, Judeo-Christian LAST DAYS THEOLOGY is it conquers and defeats the Christian soldiers who, themselves, should be more than conquerors. Victors taking dominion, overcoming the world through faith, hope, and love. It causes people to wring their hands in despair, believing things will get progressively worse in almost every area of life until Jesus returns with His angels.

One writer described the effect as, "Preoccupation with the end can act as a cultural sedative, leaving the world to its own inescapable eschatological certainties, giving man little impetus to effect change beyond his own isolated individualistic world. While society collapses, the population grows in its despair and joins 'the cult of expanded consciousness, health and personal 'growth' so prevalent today.' If the end is perceived as just around the corner, then why bother? 'Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we may die.'"

THE MOST IMPORTANT POINT CONCERNING LAST DAYS

The most important point concerning the "last days" is not how to let them be your's or your family's last days. In other words, how to survive, overcome and be victorious.

We intend to cover this and many more points on the last days in a series of tapes. Points to be covered include:

Are we in the last days?; Terrorism and plagues; The Gold, Silver, Food Storage and Vitamin prophets; The most dangerous plague; The best false theology that money can buy; What to do; New World Order theology; Millennialism: is it a Jewish Doctrine?; The Kingdom: Now or Later?; What about the return of Christ?; Following Prophecy and not Christ; Turning to the temple; Can the Last Days be altered?; Is There to be a New Age?.

SARAH WOODLAND...

A Testament of Hope, Faith, and Courage.
by Cheri Peters

On July 13, 1979, a baby girl was born to Don and Bonnie Woodland. Bonnie had wanted to name her Betsy but Don filed the name 'Sarah.' At the time, God had given him evidence this baby girl was to be strong and courageous, as the name 'Sarah' signifies. So, 'Sarah' it was!

Sarah was trained up in a Christian family who understood both their spiritual and racial identity in Christ. Sarah loved to study scripture with her Dad and mom and dad taught her to respect and obey the laws of her God. Her unquestioning belief in God, and the inspiration of His Holy Word were planted deep within her.

Bonnie described Sarah's beliefs to be like a Mack truck. She never hid her light under a bushel basket, but shared her faith whenever an opportunity availed itself. Unlike many adults, Sarah could not be intimidated by anyone when it came to her faith. She was bold concerning her beliefs!

Everyone who knew Sarah describes her as a sweet, loving, and spiritually pure young lady. Bonnie not only cherished her daughter, but also her friendship. "Sarah is what I want to be" said Bonnie. Her school teacher described Sarah to her classmates as an example for all of them to follow. Many described Sarah as an 'angel.' It was because of Sarah's influence that Matt, a classmate, turned his life around and now talks about God and his future in a different light.

Heather Foster a friend Sarah met at our 1994 summer camp, said she always had a smile and a spirit of helping others. You couldn't help but instantly love her because of the love she radiated to others. After Heather heard of Sarah's illness, she made a concerted effort to contact others to send cards, letters, money, etc. in support of Sarah and her family.

At camp last year, Sarah wasn't feeling up to par. A short time after returning home, Sarah was diagnosed with Myelodysplastic Syndrome, a form of leukemia so rare that only a few cases are seen each year at Children's Hospital. Untreated, patients can survive for six to eight months. With a bone marrow transplant, they can live another five years or more.

Immediately, Sarah's parents sought prayers, other opinions and alternative solutions in Mexico and San Diego. But in the end, they returned to Children's Hospital in Boston for the transplant.

Sarah was dependent on blood transfusions while a bone marrow donor was sought. "I'm like the Energizer Bunny" she quipped at the time. She kept going, and going, until a donor was found.

When the Make A Wish Foundation offered to make Sarah's wish come true in February, she could have chosen anything she wanted. She chose a trip to Aruba to share with her family and a close cousin and perhaps to leave them with fond memories. But in Aruba, she only had four hours of energy each day.

The family returned to good news, however. A bone marrow donor had been found. The night before Sarah's operation, her friends threw a surprise party for her at her high school. Cheerleaders called out the letters of her name in a rousing cheer that ended with "We love you Sarah." Others baked heartshaped brownies.

Laura Kett, a close friend and neighbor who spearheaded an auction in November and raised $10,000 for medical expenses, described Sarah as the bravest person she had ever known: "As beautiful inside as she is outside."

The story of this beautiful young lady with a dazzling smile and brave heart touched the community, and she received an outpouring of letters and cards. Singer Sheryl Crow visited her in the hospital. Eugene Hile ran in the Boston Marathon in her name. He also sent her a teddy bear, gifts and cards. The community's love and care buoyed Sarah.

The operation appeared to be a success. After undergoing chemotherapy, radiation, and being in isolation for six weeks, Sarah went home. The big fear was graft-versus-host disease; that her body would reject the transplant. The procedure was still considered experimental. With Sarah's immune system destroyed, every precaution had to be taken to protect her from germs. Still she was able to live a somewhat normal life.

Scriptures for America's family camps were a high-light of her life and Sarah had been praying for God to give her a sign to know if she would be able to attend camp in '96. When she received our newsletter telling of camp's cancellation this year, Sarah took it as the sign she had asked for. She obviously would not be able to attend camp.

THE LAST DAYS SERIES in 9 pts.

Spiritual 'biological warfare' is being spread among the Christian soldiers, and false "last days" theology is one of the carriers. In the Old Testament days the wicked Canaanites held on to the promised land as long as the Hebrews suffered from this spiritual 'biological' plague.

Get these and share with friends!
suggested don. $30 this month!

Soon it became apparent Sarah's body was rejecting the transplant. Put on Prednisone, she lost her muscle strength, suffered joint pains and became diabetic. Her appearance was altered. She had every side effect the drug could give except for blindness.

In the last month, she had two acute rejections and went from a mild dose of Prednisone of 40 milligrams to 180. A week earlier, she was put on morphine because of the severity of the pain. Five months after the operation, on July 7, Sarah was admitted to Children's Hospital with bone pains and swelling in her legs. The moment she got to the hospital, she couldn't breathe, and was put on a respirator. While on their way to the hospital, Sarah asked her mother to talk to her the whole way. Both Bonnie and Sarah knew she wasn't coming home.

Sarah had tubes running in and out of her nose, throat, bladder, eight in all. The nurses said that every other child in that kind of equipment with all those tubes freaks out. Not once did Sarah complain. The only time she cried in the hospital was when she wanted the light above her bed turned off, but the nurse wouldn't turn it off. Finally her mother took charge and the light went off. For four days the nurses didn't have to sedate her. She would write notes to people because she couldn't talk. One particular note was to her doctor, saying "Go home and go to sleep" and another note to a nurse, commending her on doing a good job taking care of her.

Thursday morning Sarah began hemorrhaging in her lungs during the night. When Don and Bonnie arrived at the hospital, the staff informed them Sarah had liver, kidney and brain damage. They spent the day and night hoping that the bleeding would stop. They subsequently learned that Sarah had a stroke on Saturday, which created scarring in the brain, which in turn caused the two seizures she had on Wednesday.

During this time Bonnie would sing to her precious jewel. The memory of Sarah asking her to "keep talking Mom" in the car on the way to the hospital, led Bonnie to sing to Sarah in her last hours. Sarah had told her she was not afraid to die, but was afraid of what it would do to her Mom if she did.

In helping to prepare Sarah for death, Bonnie explained death as it being like the first day of school. We fear the unknown, but after that it becomes old hat. Obviously, we've never experienced it before, so how can we know what it's like? Bonnie said she can't imagine anyone experiencing what her family was going through without faith in God. But even with an abundance of faith, the pain remains the same. The pain is a God-given emotion which only time can fade.

The decision to turn off the respirator was more than difficult for Don and Bonnie. But at midnight it was shut down. At 12:30 am Friday, 30 minutes into Sarah's 16th birthday, she breathed her last breath surrounded by the deep love of her family and friends. At the moment Sarah's spirit left her body, her mom, dad, and brother Rob watched in awe the transformation of her struggling body into one of a shell lying in peace.

After experiencing this with his own eyes Rob, Sarah's skeptical older brother, is now seeking spiritual knowledge. He realizes Christianity is not a "bunch of crap" as he once thought. Sarah's synopsis of life was that "it's all about LOVE!" Sarah once told her mother that "IF you LOVE you don't disobey God by doing the things He's told us not to do."

After I was informed of Sarah's death, my first response was "Why God"! Why allow a rare treasure such as Sarah to struggle as hard as she did and then not give her the victory of life? After I told my daughter of Sarah's passing, she had the exact same response. And isn't it ironic that the one who never asked "Why" was Sarah herself. Through all her suffering Sarah shed a few tears without complaint, never questioning God's will for her. God granted her the one request of living until her 16th birthday.

Our Heavenly Father knows the answer as to "Why". As His creation we can look for the blessings which come from it (Romans 8:28) and continue to trust in His Sovereign mercy and grace. Many positive things have transpired through Sarah's illness. Along with what has been written above, Sarah's parents have been drawn closer in marriage than ever before. Her brother Rob has a new found faith in God and he and his dad's relationship is as strong as it's ever been.

Yitzhak Rabin's Death ~ What You Haven't Read ~

One has to bypass the controlled media to find what others are saying. The following Jewish right-wing perspective was taken off the Internet:

Yesterday, the world witnessed a great act of courage, an act of courage by a brave young man with a bright future. Twenty-seven year old Yigal Amir, an Israeli law student, recognized the dilemma facing his people... accepting his racial duty, and blew away a traitor to the Jewish People and the Jewish State. Amir put aside his "happiness," his egotism, his love of self, and PUT HIS PEOPLE FIRST.

The Jewish Tribe has survived hearty and strong for millennia largely because ISRAEL COMES FIRST to each and every proud Jew. There's been no nonsense (until recently) about "happiness" and other materialistic paradigms within the Jewish community. The materialism and decadence has been for the Goyim alone

The Israelis are divided against themselves. They are NOT cooperating right now. BUT, some Jewish visionaries, recognizing that if treason against Israel prospers, from whatever quarter, "war hero" Rabin or whomever, that if treason prospers, the STATE OF ISRAEL DIES.

The next perspective was sent to us by the Christian Institute for Ethics and Justice out of California who, through this ministry, have discovered the Christian Israel Identity truth. The letter was sent to several newspapers as a letter to the editor:

Dear Pastor Peters, One hundred years before Christ, the Pharisees of Babylon introduced Judaism in Jerusalem. Today, they worship at the Wailing Wall of King Herod who killed all first born of true Israel in a failed effort to destroy Jesus. They failed again when they crucified the innocent Christ. Afterward, killing as many Christian Israelites as they could, the Jews left the land desolate. The Bible says it will remain so. Pharisees are still trying to revive their corpse in the land they never owned. The Jewish State of Israel is an imposter. The recently dead Jewish hero, Yitzhak Rabin was a terrorist-peace-maker. Born in bloodshed and living by the sword, this Judaistic State is now an armed camp where no one is safe. Judaism was conquered at Calvary. It will never arise.

Teaching such ideas as the mythical Temple-Restoration Theology, false prophets like Babylonian preacher, Robert Schuller leads Christians into Judaism. Providing hundreds of billions in tax dollars to support the Jewish trouble makers in the Middle East engages America in the intrigues of an Internationalist Government. For supporting this anti-Christian government, Christian America must repent or reap a harvest of despair and desolation.

Have you ever wondered how Judeo-Christian Zionist type ministers must feel about Rabin's death? Though a past terrorist, Rabin was negotiating and compromising for peace; yet his conciliatory peace efforts would expose the false theology which says modern-day Jews are to get all the land promised in Deut 34:4 (Joshua 21:43 clearly shows that this happened in Joshua's day). They also teach that these are God's chosen people and that, like Moses, God speaks to them. Then the Jewish assassin says God told him to kill Mr Rabin. So these ministers who are supposed to serve the Prince of Peace have their false theology better served by not having certain Jewish land holdings given up for the sake of peace.

Perhaps few will ever understand the timing and spiritual significance of the event. For that understanding those of you who get our tapes need to listen closely to the tape #S-676 entitled The Order of Battle (pt 5 of the Solemn Assembly). Also read and consider 2 Chron 20:22 and Judges 7:22 in light of the fact that Rabin's assassin said God told him to do it. □

LET'S KEEP PRAYING

The Jews are killing each other. Governments everywhere are liquidating the people's gold. Atheists and Hindus have joined together at the homosexual capital, San Francisco, to establish global government, global tax, global police and a global military force. Wall Street bulls rush toward the abyss as the Dow reaches 5000. The President and his wife are scandalized by charges of dope peddling, fraud, theft, and murder. While maintaining that they are innocent the federals paid the Weaver family $3.1 million for the death of Vicky and Sammy. Against hundreds of witnesses and a mountain of evidence implicating government agents in the bombing of the federal building in Oklahoma City, the federals strive to cover up their acts in order to blame lone-nut civilians. The Jewish Presidential Cabinet and Treasury Department are now embezzling pension funds to pay for operating the bankrupt federal government. Congress stalls against a Presidential veto and the federals are put on paid furlough! Ace spin artist and presidential candidate, Arlen Spectre, promises to abolish the IRS and ATF but saves the Federal Reserve so that it can bail out the world's wealthiest creditors, Japanese banks. As a million, mostly subsidized, black men march at the capitol whining about how whites mistreat them, their champion, black sports star OJ Simpson, is being sued for killing his white wife and her Jewish lover and is being set free by a black jury. Muslim religious fanatics declare OJ Simpson and billionaire child-molester freak, Michael Jackson, to be black role models. Disney Studios endorse homosexuality in the Magic Kingdom as millions shrink in horror and Walt Disney rolls over in his grave. Television evangelist, Robert Schuller, joins with President Bill Clinton on his multimillion dollar visit to mourn the death of Israeli Terrorist (peace-maker) Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin. Other good news is that Attorney General, Janet Reno, has a serious illness which may hinder her future attempts to save children by killing them. Let us pray. ■

The Reconstructionist View of the State by Byron Snapp

An evidence of the evolving state, so ingrained in the modern mindset, is the reference to government employees as "bureaucrats." I can still remember the days when those employees were called "civil servants." This reference was accompanied with the idea that government existed to serve the people. The term "bureaucrats" most readily refers to an office worker laboring amidst bureau draws full of information of the citizenry of a nation. Such reference shows a growing power of centralist government with a resulting loss of freedom for those so governed.

THE BIBLICAL CONCEPTION OF THE STATE

In the midst of the demise of freedom it is a joy to realize that Scripture provides a blueprint for civil government. We are reminded of this in a general way in that God is the Creator and Sustainer of all things (Gen 1:1; Col 2:17) and that Scripture thoroughly prepares us to speak to every aspect of life (2 Tim 3:16,17). In the remainder of this article I will try to lay out some general principles that are foundational for a civil government that is honoring to God.

LIMITED GOVERNMENT

A civil government is limited by the fact that it is one of many spheres of government that God has established. Dr Rushdoony has well stated this fact: "The state is not the government, but one form of government among many, others being the self-government of the Christian man, the family, the school, the church, the vocations and society. The state is civil government, a ministry of justice."<sup>1</sup> This means that families must train their children to govern themselves in many areas of life. A portion of this training comes from seeing the family govern itself in a Biblical manner without state interference. The first recorded words of God to Adam and Eve were words of self-government and family government (Gen 1:26-28). Other realms of government can also be traced out in the early pages of Scripture. Secondly, civil government is, as are other governments, under the ordination and governance of God. Paul rightly wrote to Christians living in Rome, "Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God ... For he is God's minister to you for good" (Rom 13:1,4a). Thus, civil government can never take on god-like powers and be obedient to God. Government officials are to see themselves as employed by God. They are in a position to serve God and the citizenry in the limited role God has given them.

The role of civil government is limited to the protection of its citizens from internal and external threats. Speaking of the governing authority, Paul writes, "For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil" (Rom 13:4). Evil activity may come from outside a nation. In cases of greed or some other sinful motivation, a nation invades the territory of another. For the common defense of its people, the invaded nation must defend itself by means of military action. Evil activity may also come from within a nation as sinful men perpetuate evil actions on others. Even here, Scripture must be used to determine what evil acts are properly defined as a civil offense. For example, the acts of anger and murder each are a violation of the sixth commandment. Anger is not a civil offense, although repentance before God and the victim of the anger is required. Murder is a civil offense. God states in Gen. 9:6, "Whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed; for in the image of God He made man." Although knowledgeable that he should have received the death penalty (Gen 4:14), Cain was not executed because no civil government existed at that time in history. Civil government alone is "to execute wrath on him who practices evil" (Rom 13:4b). Scripture alone provides the boundaries for civil government's activities. Left without these boundaries, civil government will appropriate for itself God-like attributes, exercising full sovereignty over its citizens, as well as desiring to be all-knowing and ever present in the affairs of the populace (e.g. John Howard today! CIM)

Thus, government is religiously based. As God's appointed authorities, government officials must one day give an account of their labors to God. There is no room for pluralism being an excuse for no religious involvement in civil government. Pluralism is the belief that religions must not influence civil government to adhere to their principles nor should a civil government favor one religion over another. While this topic needs a separate article for fuller development, I hope you can readily see that, since government employees are God's servants, civil government must exist to God's glory, despite what Allah, Buddha, or any other false god might "think." A Christian can take no comfort in being a pluralist. Such thinking is sinful; and anti-Christian pluralism relegates Christianity, the only true religion, and the sovereign God to the level held by all false religions and gods. The very fact that civil government exists attests to the truth of Christianity. In Webster's 1828 dictionary, "govern" is defined as "to direct and control, as the actions or conduct of men either by established laws or by arbitrary will ...". Because of the Fall, men are born in iniquity (Ps 51:5). Because man is sinful, watchcare must be given in situations where sinful actions are perpetrated against other members of that society, as well as to prevent a victim from taking vengeance on a wrongdoer (Rom 12:19-13:4). Thus, Christianity and only Christianity provides a rationale for civil government's existence.

CIVIL LAW

Being a minister of God, a civil government can properly govern only by means of God's civil laws as set forth in Scripture. These laws define lawbreaking as well as appropriate punishment. For example, theft is a civil crime (Ex 22:1ff), [even if we call it 'buy-back', CIM] yet the appropriate punishment is not locking up that person in prison. In doing so the convicted thief cannot provide for himself or for his household. Also, the victim of the thief must have money taken from him [stolen from him, CIM] by taxation, to pay the necessary expenses of keeping the thief behind bars. Thus, the victim is victimized a second time. Scripturally based restitution offers a far better punishment (Ex 22:1ff). Crimes such as homosexuality (Lev 18:22, 20:13), adultery (Lev 20:10, Deut 22:21-24), and incest (Lev 20:11,12,14) required the death penalty because these actions would result in the murder of the family, the basic societal institution. Scripture alone is sufficient to provide equitable punishment for lawbreakers as well as to provide the law code (the general equity of the Old Testament law) for the proper governing of society. [not like we recently read in the Cairns Post, about five 17-19 years-olds, who were convicted of armed hold-up, and were sentenced to 100 hours of community service, and probation!! I bet people who keep an "illegal" weapon hidden away, if caught, won't get community service and probation. Obviously, the government wants crime to continue. CIM]

WHERE RECONSTRUCTION MUST BEGIN

Civil government cannot be reconstructed overnight. Reconstruction must begin in your home and mine, not in Washington, DC (or Canberra, CIM). As family members are properly trained and governed, each member learns the importance of self-government and by assuming the responsibilities for family maintenance and community welfare concerns (with the assistance of local churches). Only then can civil government be pushed back into its Biblical domain.

Our children and future generations must be educated from a Biblical perspective [i.e. home school them. For details of sources for home school materials please write to CIM.]. This includes a Biblical understanding of the role of government and the responsibilities of citizens to civil government. Churches must not refrain from preaching the whole counsel of God, including the application of civil law to society (unfortunately, we have seen of late, how many of the so-called Christians, are actually Baal Priests, in their support for John Howard on the gun laws issue. This in fact, is demonstrating the 'mark of the beast'. Salt shakers without salt, and a festival of light spreading darkness; asking government for more laws, which God never authorised! CIM].

We must pray that God would establish a desire for civil government's Biblical role to be implemented by the civil government God has appointed for us (Rom 13:1) The reconstruction of civil government is a task bigger than any of us. Thankfully, by God's grace, we serve the Governor of all Creation. He has provided the proper blueprint for civil government. May God use us and future generations to properly govern ourselves and our relationships with others as we work toward the reconstruction of civil government on God's terms. ■

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

by Paul Grant, (from the FID Activist)

Did you know that it is illegal to go outside your home with a gun in your hand to investigate a prowler or possible burglary - unless it turns out that there really is a dangerous prowler or burglar? If it turns out the suspicious sounds you heard were made by someone innocent of any crime, and you showed them your gun - you can be guilty of "felony menacing!"

That was the basis for a criminal trial in Colorado last fall. The prosecutor argued to the jury that it didn't even matter whether the defendant pointed the gun at anyone or whether he pointed it at the sky - all that mattered was whether he wanted to scare the "victim."

The intruder, who knocked over a toolbox and made a lot of racket, turned out to be seven girls on a scavenger hunt, approaching a heavily forested residence at dusk. Kurt, a 38-year-old diabetic with a broken leg, home alone and relaxing in a camper trailer next to the main house, came out to investigate the loud crash, which sounded to him like someone kicking in his front door. His property was fenced and gated and posted on three sides, with a very uninviting mud bank on the fourth side, and densely forested.

Out from behind a huge spruce tree stepped a 13-year-old girl -- only four feet away, almost in his face. She was scared; he was scared; and he ordered her and her friends (ages 8-13) off the property -- with the gun pointed to the sky. Kurt called 911 to report the incident, as did the girls. The cop who arrived at Kurt's house arrested him immediately, and didn't want to hear why Kurt had used the gun, nor was he interested in how the girls had trespassed on his property, or any other facts other than Kurt's gun.

When Kurt was placed in the police cruiser, he saw why - a computer screen in the cruiser lit up, on which was a listing of all of Kurt's legally owned and registered firearms. Kurt is a gun collector, and if the cop made the felony arrest stick, as a convicted felon, Kurt would have to give up all of his guns. The police never investigated the scene, and the district attorney went ahead with a felony prosecution. What they didn't do, was reckon with the common sense of the jury, which was purged of most gun owners, but inexplicably left on the jury was one fellow who collects early western guns, and who was jury foreman.

The law of felony menacing makes preparing for self-defense possibly a criminal act. That doesn't make a lot of sense, and didn't to the jury. The defense argued what Kurt did couldn't be a crime - not if you have the right to own a gun and to use it in self-defense, and not if he believed he was dealing with a dangerous situation.

After a 4-day trial, sent out at 5pm on Friday night, the jury came back in 45 minutes with a "not guilty on all counts!" The judge and prosecutors were in shock. Kurt was in tears - he could return to the hospital for continued recovery from the recent amputation of his left leg, which never healed after an earlier fracture - and he can keep his guns.

This case should be a warning to all gun owners. If you have registered guns, they are probably on a computer screen somewhere. Gun control/confiscation is now performed one household at a time. On-board data screens tell cruising policemen who has registered guns in a neighborhood. ## The Crime of Survival

Jake Landon, a 42-year-old mechanic, is facing multiple counts of aggravated cruelty to animals as a result of his 21-day fight for survival when lost in the Adirondack mountains in upstate New York.

Last April, Landon's pickup skidded on a muddy road and slid into a ravine where he lay unconscious for possibly two days. He apparently struck his head on the windshield and awoke with no recollection of who and where he was. Dragging a severely injured right foot he wandered about for the next three weeks, huddling at night in shelters made of pine boughs, surviving on fish caught with a pointed stick and squirrels he trapped, then killed with the stick.

On the last day of his ordeal, Landon stumbled into a road where he collapsed. Two men, now thought to be escapees from a prison, indicated the direction of the nearest settlement. Landon finally reached civilization.

Landon's highly publicised story caught the attention of the group, Humans for the Sensitive Treatment of Animals. The animal rights advocacy group pressed the State of New York to bring charges of extreme cruelty to animals with special circumstances against him, specifying the known deaths of at least 10 squirrels and an indeterminate number of fish. Each count of the class-A felony carries a mandatory sentence of nine years without parole.

One argument the state is expected to raise is that the number of animals Landon killed was unnecessarily large, owing to the fact that by moving about he elevated his caloric requirements; had he conserved his energy and waited for rescuers to find him, he would not have needed more than one small fish and a few berries each day.

Landon also faces a third degree charge of failure to wear a seat belt and 21 federal charges of setting fires at unapproved sites on state lands.

CHINA HAS GUN CONTROL

A Message from a
'Peoples' Government...

GUN CONTROL

by Peter J. Peters

"Tell the American people never to lose their guns. As long as they keep their guns in their hands, whatever happened here will never happen there."

Words of the parents of a female student from Tianenmen Square, Beijing - Communist China.

The continual, blatant push in America to disarm the citizens can only be properly understood in light of conquest. History shows the conqueror feels very uncomfortable with conquered slaves owning firearms. For example, historians have reported how old Southern plantation slave owners feared slaves having firearms.

"Not only on the deathbed did southern slaveholders experience soul-shaking fear. For they now held more than 3 million blacks. What if it ever got into their slaves' heads to say, 'Enough!'"

Even with a police and military force at his disposal, the conqueror still feels uncomfortable as long as the conquered slaves are armed. The continual blatant push to disarm the citizens can only be properly understood in light of conquest.

In a special mailing by the Gun Owners of America Organization (8001 Forbes Place Suite 102, Springfield VA 22151), the printing of the following statement illustrates how today's gun confiscation cannot be fully understood apart from the subject of conquest. "Most political experts simply cannot understand why George Bush continues to abandon the millions of gun owners who elected him President." It's not hard to understand in light of conquest. It is and has always been a universally known axiom that it is the RIGHT of the conqueror to disarm the conquered. Consider, for example, the scene of October 15, 1781, described by historians Peter Marshall and David Manuel. Since General George Washington had conquered the British, the conquered British General had to do the bidding of the conqueror.

"Silence hung over the field as a gentle breeze stirred leaves that were just beginning to turn color. Then, in the distance came the sound of the British marching drums - slurred, erratic, not at all crisp and precise, as they were famed to be. The drummers, like many of the men, had prepared themselves with rum. The officers came first, on horseback.

Cornwallis, it turned out, could not bring himself to turn over his sword to Washington in person, and so had pleaded 'indisposition' and instructed his deputy to do so. Washington refused to deal with Cornwallis's deputy himself, and sent Benjamin Lincoln, his deputy of comparable rank, to accept the sword.

And then the soldiers came, marching to the popular tune of "The World Turned Upside Down." (As indeed it was!) Down the files they came, some angry, some weeping; the Americans said not a word, but looked straight ahead...

'Ground muskets!' each British officer commanded his men when they reached the end of the file, and they did so sullenly, flinging their Brown Besses on the ground in front of them.<sup>2</sup>

It is an arbitrary decision of the conqueror whether the conquered can keep their weapons. For example, when the conquered confederate General Robert E. Lee surrendered to the conquering Union General Ulysses S. Grant, he offered over his sword. In that instance, General Grant declined the sword and allowed Lee to keep it, for it is the right of the conqueror to decide which weapons, if any, the conquered may keep.

The Bible bears out the truth of this in 1 Samuel 13. The Israelites, as the conquered slaves of the Philistines, had lost their weapons & the means for making them (1 Sam 4:9).

"Now no blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, 'Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears.' So all Israel went down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe, and his goad, whenever they had to sharpen the edges of the goads, of the mattocks, of the forks, and of the axes, and to fix the goad points. So it came about on the day of battle that neither sword nor spear was found in the hands of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan, but they were found with Saul and his son Jonathan." (1 Sam 13:19-22).

Today, the conquered continue in their day to day existence as serfs, but the conqueror is limited in his destructive ability and his openness to treat the slaves as mere chattel. That limitation has been due to the weapons owned by the slaves. Presently nine of the ten planks of the Communist Manifesto are firmly in place. To make it ten, the weapons of the conquered must be taken. As slaves with weapons we presently live only in a socialistic enslavement, but without the weapons we will experience pure Bolshevik terror.

The Reverend Leslie Millin, who as a missionary witnessed the communist takeover of China, explained in his lectures (tape #8140 & 8141) how in the first 90 days of the takeover the conquering Communists were so benevolent, humanitarian and helpful. It was during this time (of amnesty) they labored vigorously to confiscate all the weapons on the pretext of 'peace is here to stay.' Once the people were disarmed, Pastor Millin said: "Then at the end of ninety days, we learned the difference between theoretical communism and Bolshevik terror."

"When a strong man fully armed guards his own home- stead, his possessions are undisturbed; but when someone stronger than he attacks him and overpowers him, he takes away from him all his armor on which he had relied, and distributes his plunder." (Luke 11:21-22).

Jesus Christ has made known His will concerning His people possessing a weapon:

"And He said to them, 'When I sent you out without a purse and bag and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?' And they said, 'No, nothing.' And He said to them, 'But now, let him who has a purse take it along, likewise also a bag, and let him who has no sword sell his robe and buy one.'" (Luke 22:35-36).

Note the words, "LET HIM WHO HAS NO SWORD SELL HIS ROBE AND BUY ONE." Are these words not every bit as much a command as "love your neighbor" or "turn the other cheek"? Yet, how often have you heard them in a sermon? How often have you heard them explained in the present-day Judeo-Christian (SALTLESS) church world? For most, the answer is NEVER!

In the days of Jesus the weaponry consisted of such items as spear, bow and sword. The sword of that day would have been the nearest thing to a handgun of today. It could be carried on the waist, rapidly drawn from its scabbard, and used for personal defense or deadly offensive purposes. IT WAS A LETHAL WEAPON, equivalent to a pistol, a rifle, a machine gun and yes, and assault rifle. When you carried a sword, you were as well armed as any member of Caesar's SWAT team.

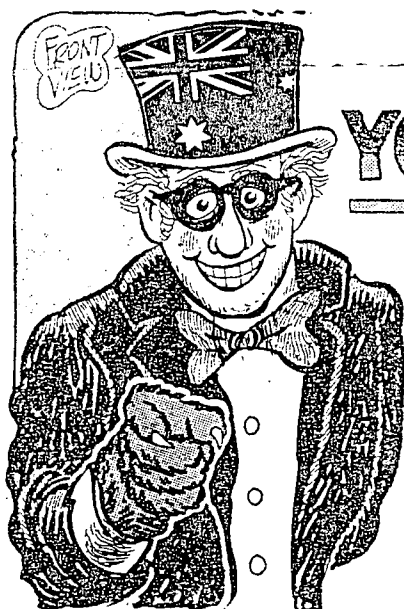

Some may say this command was only for the Apostles, yet, Jesus told them to teach us "...to observe all that I commanded you;..." (Matt 28:20).

A Christian who does not own a firearm or does not resist gun control disobeys the will of his Lord, Jesus Christ, who has clearly instructed him to purchase a major lethal weapon of the day. The Bible has stories of assassinations, murders, and war deaths numbering in the multi-millions, all with swords. Jesus Christ, before his departure, told the Apostles to BUY A SWORD. Naturally, this doesn't fit modern ideas of Christ and Christianity because of the Baal priests in the land, but suffice it to say, a Christian without a gun is disobedient to the intent of those words in Luke 22:35-36.

Jesus is the Good Shepherd, concerned for the welfare of His people, but He has warned of others who wish to steal, kill and destroy His sheep (Jn 10:10). Thus, He has commanded us to be armed. He, who would have us be free, would have us be armed. Those who would have us be slaves, would have us disarmed.

A Jewish man by the name of Aaron Zelman has formed the Jews for the Preservation of Firearms Ownership (JPFO). During an interview, he made some amazing confessions concerning the Jewish influence to disarm America. His interview has appeared in the magazines "American Survival Guide," and "S.W.A.T." and has been dealt with extensively in the booklet, "The Inadvertent Confessions of a Jew." (#016 @ $2.10ppd) The following comes from that booklet:

I WANT YOUR GUN

FOR YOUR OWN GOOD & WELFARE, MY CHILD. GIVE IT TO UNCLE AND I'LL GIVE YOU SOMETHING IN EXCHANGE.

Q: What are your personal reasons for starting JPFO?

A: There are a small percentage of Jews, like myself, who are staunch supporters of gun ownership, but our side of the story is censored by the liberal Jews who heavily influence the mass media and government.

The Confession: Most Jews are against gun ownership. Because of Jews there is no free press. Jews HEAVILY INFLUENCE the mass media and government.

Comments: If a small percentage of the Jews are for gun ownership, then most of the Jews are against gun ownership. If the Jews censor the other side from being told, then the media is biased and there is not a FREE press.

Q: Aaron, what can JPFO do to defend gun ownership that is not being done by other pro-gun groups?

A: Jim, it is obvious that one of the major problems we gun owners face is the heavy influence (some call it a stranglehold) of left wing, liberal Jewish antigunners in the media and government.

The confession: Jews have a heavy influence (and even a STRANGLEHOLD) in our media and government. Jews are leftwingers, liberals, and antigunners.

Comment: Many others have tried to warn Americans that the Jews control our media and government, but have been ignored by a Pavlovian T.V. conditioned populace. Now a Jew is giving the same warning. Will he be ignored also? To have a STRANGLEHOLD is to have a DEATH GRIP. If death grips are not broken, the victim dies.<sup>3</sup> □

British Jews Reportedly Learning Defense in U.S.

London — British Jews are training in the use of firearms and self-defense in the United States to set up armed patrols in Britain to counter what they see as a rise in anti-Semitic attacks, British television reported yesterday.

Mordechai Levy of the U.S.-based Jewish Defense Organization told British Broadcasting Corporation television's Panorama program that six British Jews had already received instruction in firearms and unarmed combat from U.S. instructors.

Levy said other Britons were training with the organization to establish armed patrols and self-defense groups in Britain like those in the United States. British police said they had no evidence that any such groups were operating in Britain.

In the United States, hidden away in library shelves, in the books of the United States Code, in vol 9 on page 554 you will find Public Law 87-297 which calls for the United States to eliminate its armed forces. This law was signed for the United States in 1961 by John F. Kennedy. And every president since has worked to implement its provisions. The government knows you will not approve which is why they want to take away your firearms.

On page 555 you will find the definition of what the government means by "disarmament." The disarmament calls for the elimination of our armed forces. It also calls for the elimination of weapons of all kinds. On page 557 you will find it stated as Item (a) "...control, reduction and elimination of armed forces..." And as item (d) "... elimination of armed forces..." What you need to know is that your armed forces are being eliminated from national control, which in turn, wipes out our sovereignty as a nation. In two stages we shall have no more army, no more navy and no more air force. In the third stage we shall have a "zero" military. Before stage one closes, all citizen-owned guns will be banned.

If Congress can promote a "Constitutional Convention" you will find yourself with two new constitutions (communist in structure) which in one states in Article VIII Section 12: "No person shall bear arms or possess lethal weapons except the police and members of the armed forces..." □ courtesy the book "America The Conquered" #064 @ $12.50

THE FINAL SOLUTION

One must know certain basic historical facts in order to understand current events: Lincoln's Abolition Plan to free the slaves was done to keep them enslaved; that the Blacks were meant to be used to enslave the Whites; and, that it is all part of an ancient plan to destroy Israel.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

History has shown that as long as a racial group can maintain its cohesiveness and laws it may escape the clutches of the International Trade Cartel (empire).

o "1772 - Virginia again petitioned England to prevent the importation of slaves ... The petition was refused." 1

o "1817 - The American Colonization Society was formed in Washington, DC. Its purpose - to finance the return of blacks to Africa. Its founder - Rev. Robert Finney, a Presbyterian minister. The reason - Israel was to separate themselves from strangers lest they learn their ways. The group immediately came under attack from the 'liberals'..." 2

COLONIZATION ABOLITION PLAN

The Colonization Abolition plan was started to buy Black females reaching 18 and males reaching 21 and re-settle them in Africa. Older slaves were to remain in America and in time grow old and die. In this way slavery would quietly and surely cease to exist as the younger Blacks returned to Africa and older Blacks died out.

It was also planned that the slave owners would be compensated for the loss of their property as the Law against theft of property would not be violated. 3

The Colonization Abolition Plan worked in the following manner:

1. Money was raised from individual donations and grants from states;

2. Slaves were obtained from owners who had bought them from New England slave traders. Some were purchased, many others were freed by their masters on condition that they be re-settled.

3. The newly freed slaves were then furnished with clothing, seed, tools, and settled on farms purchased in Liberia. In their new country they were protected from European and Black African interests who were interested in again reducing them to slavery.

This plan was supported by prominent leaders in both the North and South. Tens of thousands of Blacks were re-settled in Africa in this manner.

RADICAL ABOLITION

The Blacks were needed by the International Trade Cartel (ITC) to provide the 'final solution' to the 'Saxon Problem.' 4 If they were deported to Africa it would mean that the critical element would be lost. To prevent their departure a substitute plan was introduced.

This substitute solution was - "radical abolition." It was meant to destroy the existing repatriation plan. Radical abolition simply demanded that the slaves be freed, and it certainly did not include a plan to re-settle them in Africa. This plan was not supposed to solve the Negro problem in America. It was proposed in such a manner that it was sure to be opposed by the South, and in the conflict to follow the entire self-sufficient farm system of the South could be destroyed and the entire section could be added to the economic empire in the process of being built.

RADICAL ABOLITION SOLD BY MEDIA

The ITC owned the American media which made it possible to sell this radical incendiary plan. From the first, practically all mention of the existing Colonization Plan was blacked out at the very time it was doing its greatest work. There was no voice to oppose the ITC media in the big cities as it launched a full-blown hate campaign to demonize the South.

Every mention of slavery concentrated on the extremist speeches and statements of radical abolitionists. Headlines dwelled on Southern atrocities against defenseless black slaves and incidents were manufactured where none existed in fact. Incited against their Southern brothers by this propaganda campaign, Northern Whites forgot that there was an existing, peaceful American Colonization Plan. At the same time, Southern Whites began to bristle over the lies told about them. 5

GOOD MEN DO NOTHING.

We Southerners, loving the comforts of home and the companionship of wives and children, held back and allowed a Dharmatized 6 priesthood to roam the land spewing poison, and a lying media to go unpunished. We did not really believe that our disregard of God's Law would cause Him to do to His own people what He said He would do:

GOD'S LAW: "Thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people." 1 Kings 20:42

The result of our unbelief and indolence was a war in which 600,000 White men died. The Blacks were seized as booty and compensation was refused their owners. Since plans had not been made to furnish the confiscated slaves with food, shelter, or a way to provide a living, many starved or lived on the limited bounty of their now destitute former masters.

It was not until the abject misery and starvation of these blacks who had been seized by Union Armies and transported to other parts of the country became an international disgrace that "40 Acres and a Mule" was offered to quell criticism. Even then it was a boondoggle. Top dollar was paid to ITC land and animal speculators for thousands of acres of worthless sandy land and thousands of diseased scrawny animals. The media revelled in the righteousness of it all.

Has the ITC's media informed Americans truthfully about the peaceful "American Colonization Plan" of Tom Jefferson and others of the nation's founders, and the results of adopting "Radical Abolition" of Abraham Lincoln and the Black Republicans - they would have chosen the peaceful way. If Blacks had been given the choice, after having it explained to them, they would have done the same. As it stands today, the lying media of the ITC has propagandized both Whites and Blacks to hate those who had their best interests at heart, and love those who have caused them pain and suffering.

OCCUPATION AND CONFISCATION

Agents of the International Trade Cartel installed Black government to rule over the ruined South. Their mission - to pull down what remained of the old system. Southern plantations were virtually confiscated for pennies at tax sales, and the Southern self-sufficient farm system was destroyed. Slaves were taken without compensation and 600,000 men were killed - most of whom owned self-sufficient farms and who had been declared "kings" and "priests" by their God. 7 The starving defeated army that had followed Robert E. Lee to final defeat at Appomattox had no idea that they were being incorporated into the American Empire. The South was one more conquered province being brought kicking and screaming into the empire, and the empire was in position to finish the job.

IMPERIAL RULE

The history of the world since Christ is the history of empires. An empire is a business operation. Its government is based on the Indian feudal system. All feudal systems are the same. They consist of priests, king and soldiers, businessmen, and workers.

THE ILLUSION OF FREEDOM

The imperium of empire is to supply its needs by incorporating weaker neighbors. The larger it gets the more diverse are the people incorporated into the empire. Diversity tends to split the empire apart. The greatest problem makers has always been the Saxons whose religion commands,

GOD'S LAW: "A bastard (Heb: mamzer - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." Deut 23:2.8

To hold the empire together, diversity of this sort must be overcome. It is to enforce "Dharma." "Dharma tolerance" is a Hindu discipline. Empire subjects must be taught to be tolerant of other subjects so that trade can take place smoothly. Strictly enforcing this tolerance are "Dharmatoids." Dharmatoids believe in "forced tolerance." A Dharmatoid will kill you in the name of tolerance. Dharmatoids and their Dharma are the glue that hold the empire together. They are essential.

PROMOTING RACIAL INTERMARRIAGE 1870s-1880s

It was time to permanently incorporate the South into the Empire. The Episcopal, Methodist and Catholic establishment churches remained predictably quiet as the media campaign promoting racial intermarriage went into high gear. The 1870s-1880s media cry promoting "racial intermarriage" found support from those who were willing to support "empire." Racial intermarriage is the empire's final solution to the problem of diversity.

At this time, being a member of the Republican Party meant that one was expected to support its programs. At least, one did not condemn them. There were even some, like Col. John Singleton Mosby of the famed "Mosby Rangers" of the former Confederacy, who joined the "Black Republicans" to receive preferential treatment.

BLACK NATIONALISM

Unfortunately for the Empire timetable, the campaign promoting racial intermarriage foundered on the rocks of Black nationalism. The former slaves, understanding at last how they were being used as pawns of the ITC establishment, tried to banish ALL Whites. from the Southland which they now ruled under the protection of federal bayonets. The Blacks planned to turn the conquered Southland into a Black republic.

The story of how Black Nationalism forced the ITC to switch sides and ally itself with the conquered White South is told in Vigilantes of Christendom (#381 @ $30ppd). Black Nationalism was the last thing the ITC expected.

Overnight the formerly hostile media began to support the crushed Southern Whites to help them remove Black Rule which also made it possible for the ITC to save some part of the wealth they had accumulated during and after the late war. Help from this unexpected ally, combined with the ubiquitous rise of the Phineas Priesthood over the entire country, put an end to the integration plan - for a time. (See Numbers, Chapter 25).<sup>9</sup>

THE GARVEY CASE

In the 1930s, 50,000 Blacks gathered in a tent city on the site of what is now Newport News. They wanted to go back to Africa. Plans had been made with Liberian officials and land had been set aside to settle on.

Their leader was a giant of Jamaican birth, Marcus Garvey.<sup>10</sup> This remarkable Negro had put together an organization of six million dues-paying members who wanted to separate from White society and return to Africa.

His organization bought several war surplus "Liberty Ships" of WWI vintage, sailed them down to Hampton Roads, and made ready to embark the waiting colonists. He called it the "Black Star Line." A Coast Guard cutter pulled alongside one of the ships. A search uncovered a case of contraband whiskey. The ships were confiscated, Marcus Garvey was jailed, and his effort was destroyed. The story is told in Cox's Teutonic Unity and War Cycles/Peace Cycles (#694 @ $18.75pp). Plans had been made for Marcus Garvey's followers, and returning them to Africa wasn't one of them.

THE CLASSIC CASE

The ITC propaganda machine continuously propagandizes the glories and correctness of integration. All state agencies promote its glories. The "Pocahontas" affair in Virginia was blessed and encouraged by the Church of England. The intermarriage of the Spanish conquerors with South American Indians was encouraged and blessed by the Catholic Church. And the silence of today's tax-free establishment Churches bless interracial marriage. They are all paid not to mention God's prohibitions - and they don't.

THE BALAK PLAN

All plans of integration conquest follow closely yesterday's master plan - the Balak Plan. It was an attempt to Dharmatize our entire nation. So that we would never forget, it was recorded:

"Balak, the king of the Moabites, who had ... a friendship .. with the Midianites, saw how great the Israelites were grown, he was much affrighted ... he ... did not judge it prudent to fight against them ... so he resolved to send ambassadors to the Midianites about them.

"Now the Midianites, knowing there was one Balaam ... who lived by the Euphrates, and who was the greatest of the prophets at that time .. sent ... to entreat the prophet to come to them, that he might imprecate curses to the destruction of the Israelites.

"So Balaam received the ambassadors, ... and told them ... that God... had raised him to great reputation on account of the truth of his predictions; ... and not to persist in their enmity against the Israelites ... Balaam ... went along with the ambassadors ... (to Balak)." Antiquities 4:6:3

PLOT TO DESTROY ISRAEL

The prophet Balaam advised Balak, the ruler of the Moabites, that he must do the following in order to destroy the Israelites:

"If you ... gain a victory over them (the Israelites), then do thusly:

"Set out the handsomest ... of your daughters ... then ... send them to be near the Israelites ... and when they are enamored of them ... persuade them to leave off their obedience to their own laws and the word of that God who established them ... for by this means God will be angry at them ... when Balaam had suggested this counsel to them, he went his way.

"... this Balaam ... did ... suggest that advice to them, by making use of which, our enemies had well nigh corrupted the whole multitude of the Hebrews with their wives ... " Antiquities 4:6:6-13.11

One must clearly understand the point being made. Strangers, unable to destroy the Israelites openly, tried to make them violate God's Law against intermarriage.<sup>12</sup>

The proof that destruction is certain is that God's people have been destroyed in every nation where intermarriage has been allowed.<sup>13</sup>

ONCE AGAIN

Once again Esau has set in motion the same old Balak Plan that he used so many years ago. Nothing has changed. He kept the Black slaves from being freed into a land of their own. He prevented the descendants of those here from leaving. He has brought in hordes of strangers. His media displays them in paint and costly apparel, and his government and courts give them preferential opportunities to accumulate wealth. All this is being done for the sole purpose of destroying Israel to remove the danger to the lawless ones.

Seeing their approaching doom, like sheep our people mill in consternation not knowing what to do. At some point the simple word that will deliver them will at last sink into their consciousness. They will stop following their lawless priests and leaders. Instead, they will remember:

"If ye love me obey my commandments." John 14:15
And they will turn to their God who will then bless them. ■

COUSHATTA

Two hundred and fifty militia arrived in Coushatta, Louisiana armed with cameras to prevent Lynn Truman Crawford 42, and his 78-year-old mother from being slaughtered. The two had been terrorized by FBI agents who without warrants, arrived in their yard demanding that Mrs Bonnie Crawford sign a release to search her house. Their excuse was that they wanted to question Lynn about the Oklahoma City bombing. Because they had no warrant, Mrs Crawford asked them to leave. They refused. Because she suffers from poor circulation she asked to sit - the agents would not allow it. They prevented her from entering her house. When she tried to get out of the sun - they forbade it. When she tried to drive off in her car - they blocked her in.

After an hour, the FBI agents presented what they said was a warrant. Mrs Crawford then gave them a key and told them her dog was inside. They kicked in the kitchen door and sent in an attack dog. Mrs Crawford's dog engaged the attack dog and chased him out into the yard where the government agents riddled it with bullets - killing it.

Lynn Crawford heard the shots and saw his dog being killed. Fully aware of Waco and Ruby Ridge he retrieved his father's shotgun and confronted them shouting, "Stop it! Back off!" They did. Only then did they announce, "FBI," and left. Four hours later they returned and sealed off the isolated Crawford residence, set up two road blocks, and called in two Black Hawk military helicopters (similar to the two which just crashed near Townsville while on "anti-terrorist exercises"?? CIM). The siege that was to last six days was under way. Bonnie Crawford was taken away by patrol car but was allowed to return to her home the next day and stayed with her son until he surrendered.

Lynn Crawford called Norm Resnick, a Colorado talk show host, who called the Alabama Gadsden Minutemen who called Johnny Johnson of the Texas Constitutional Militia. The militia phone tree was then activated with the news that the FBI was at it again in Coushatta.

The feds cut the telephone communications several times, but Johnny Johnson was able to talk them into restoring the service so that communication with Lynn Crawford could continue. When the telephone was reconnected Lynn Crawford exclaimed, "These people have come here to kill me! I am firmly convinced that is what they came here to do." Johnny Johnson said that militia contact was established in all states within 45 minutes. The phones then began ringing at Red River Parish Sheriff's office. According to the Houston Chronicle, Chief Deputy Sheriff Warren Perkins said, "We were getting calls within three or four hours of this stand-off. There were probably a hundred of them (today) from all over the country."

Bob Worn of the Norela Common Militia reported that many of the conversations with both local and fed agents were tape recorded. Jeff Randall of the Alabama Gadsden Minutemen called the FBI and gave this solemn warning: "Militia are headed that way. If you don't back off there is a possibility that there could be blood in the streets." Polite calls from the militia network to federal and local agencies continued through the siege.

Mike Kemp said in the Gadsden Minutemen Newsletter, "Video is our most effective weapon. Do what they don't expect. Confront them. They are trained to pursue. When you pursue them with video it destroys their plan." Militia commanders advised the FBI; "Send in Bob Worn to negotiate." He agreed. Regarding the FBI, Worn observed, "The old timers were polite but the arrogant yuppie types gave me a cold chill."

The FBI asked him to deliver two messages; "We're not going away. We will do our job." and "Washington has given permission for Bob Worn to accompany Lynn Crawford from Coushatta to Shreveport to St. Louis." This last was to assure Crawford that he had a friendly eye during all legs of the journey. Specific terms of surrender were drawn up and accepted by federal authorities. Based on these terms, Crawford surrendered. Contrary to the terms, he was held at the newly-constructed Federal Prisoner Transfer Facility at Will Rogers International Airport, Oklahoma City. He has since been transferred to Ste. Genevieve County Jail near St Louis, Missouri.

According to the New Orleans FBI agent, John Fleming, Crawford was indicted by a federal grand jury in Missouri on February the 14th. He is accused of wilfully failing to pay child support across state lines. This evidently means that the FBI is into child support-collections now. Bob Worn says that he saw no warrant. "Only thing was a Writ of Seizure," he said. By the time of Crawford's arraignment, as great many documents had been "found."

The people of Coushatta applauded the militia. "So gratifying to see these people from out of town show up to help out with the feds." Bonnie Crawford reports "The whole community is very supportive and couldn't be more wonderful." Mike Kemp of Alabama Gadsden Minutemen summed it up: "He's still alive." (Excerpted from Coushatta, Louisiana - FBI Told To Back Off, by Reinhold Sommerstedt, March 1966)

RKH: I was told that this story was printed locally and was blacked out nationally. Negotiations with the FBI are fraught with peril. The FBI sent a robot to the Weaver's cabin door at Ruby Ridge to deliver a paper. The robot contained a 12 gauge shotgun. If Randy had reached out to get the paper his head would have been blown off. The FBI could then have walked in unopposed, disposed of the children and destroyed the evidence a 'la "Waco," "Gordon Kahl," and "Oklahoma City." This would have saved them the embarrassment of being sued and paying $3.2 million dollars reparations. No one would have been left to collect. ■

ITB: "Dear Mr Hoskins: I've read In The Beginning twice. It is superb! Saxon problems would disappear if only there were a way to get millions of our kinsmen to read this book. I cannot get any of your works in the major libraries here. Censorship is strictly enforced. They have 'approved lists' of books. Please send me another copy." H.J. - Arkansas 14

RUBY RIDGE REVISITED: "The US Marshal Service last month bestowed its highest award for valor to five of its men involved in the 1992 shoot-out at Ruby Ridge, Idaho. This award for 'exceptional courage' and 'sound judgment,' went to the man who shot a 14-year old boy in the back and another marshal who provoked the firefight by killing the boy's dog. Later, their 'high degree of professional competence' included calling in the FBI Hostage Rescue Team which resulted in killing the boy's mother, Vicki Weaver." In Touch International, Bill PO Box 28240, Tempe AZ 85285

RKH: None of the murderers of innocent American citizens at Ruby Ridge or Waco have been indicted. Instead, the killers receive awards and commendations - with the approval of the administration for whom they work. Rewarding evil makes certain that evil will strike again. Their acts show both the individual members and their organizations to constitute a clear and present danger to American citizens. They are out of control and should be disbanded. If they are not others will suffer.

9) All nations feel entitled to their own land where they can worship their own gods free from the grasping greedy hands of outsiders. This includes Blacks, Jews, Chinese, Japanese AND Saxons. The separatist interests of nations are opposed by integrationist interests of economic empires. The ITC hires help from all nations, and inflames one national group against another to prepare the ground for Dharma enforcement. But, the Dharmatoids' treatment of Marcus Garvey, Rabbi Kahane, and the Weaver separatists exposes the masked fist beneath the silk glove of empire "brotherhood". Separatists are the natural enemies of empire integrationists every time they meet.

His works fill gaps in Biblical stories that can be filled nowhere else and these stories were accepted by Roman and Christian historians alike.

THE RACIAL TABOO by Monty Nelson

The twentieth century is the age of scientific research. Of all the advances in knowledge the human race has ever achieved, the vast majority have taken place within living memory. The speed of advance is now so great that ordinary brains, especially those belonging to middle aged and elderly people like myself, have simply given up hope of keeping pace with it. A computer is a typical example. Young people cannot imagine life without it. To me it is a complexity I can do without because I cannot be bothered trying to understand it.

In this era of exploitation and enquiry and research into the unknown, no subject is beyond the limit of human inquisitiveness. Not even, amazingly, when one has regard to the activities of the feminist lobby, research into the differences between men and women. An academic at the University of Nottingham, England, has even come up with the information that women tend to make better gamblers than men do - which must be of great interest to casino operators, if no-one else.

Did I say there are no limits to the fields that may be researched? Yes, there is one. RACE! So stifling has been the influence of the nonsensical "political correctness," that any questioning of its decree on the subject of race is not to be tolerated in any circumstances. Political correctness, which means the liberals behind it and the New World Order plotters behind them, have all declared that there are absolutely no differences, other than appearance, between the races. All men are equal, and so are all women, plus being equal to each other. And it doesn't matter what someone else's ancestry or background is, he must be regarded as equal to, indeed identical with, everyone else on earth. And that is final! No debate on or enquiry into the subject is to be tolerated!

Elementary common sense alone tells any sane person that this is utter nonsense. People are not all equally intelligent or strong or athletic or artistic or good looking. They do not have equal health or sex appeal. In fact, they have an infinite variety of strengths and weaknesses, of desirable and undesirable characteristics. As great a variety as there are of people on earth; and in spite of this equality rubbish, we are still expected to respect everyone as an individual. I have never been able to see how liberals can have it both ways.

If this is true of people in general, why shouldn't it be true of races? Why shouldn't people of some races tend to be better at certain things, to be more gifted in certain respects, than people of other races? In limited fields such as sport and entertainment, we already know that this seems to be the case. It is almost certainly no accident that many of the world's best gymnasts are Russian, many of the best circus clowns are French, many of the best boxers, Black Americans. But is this the result of racial characteristics or of upbringing? We don't know. And, going the way we are going, we are never going to find out either.

With all the fervour of the 17th century Inquisition forcing Galileo to recant his teachings, the political correctness fraternity has imposed its lunatic bigotry on the rest of us, simply by crying "racism" at the slightest mention of race in any respect or on any subject except one. And that one is the supposed duty owed by White people to non-white people on the basis that it is the Whites' fault that the non-whites are "disadvantaged." So it is perfectly all right to refer to race in fields like the absurdity of "affirmative action" - an extremely dangerous policy which may yet have very serious repercussions.

If we really cared about advancing non-white people and not just encouraging them to plunder what belongs to Whites, surely the sensible thing would be to clear our minds of all this artificial obsession about silly fantasies and instead concentrate on trying to find out each race's inherent strengths and then build on them? But, of course, any research on such lines would be racist and thus utterly for

ONLY ENEMY ATTACK ON AUSTRALIAN SOIL OF WWI

A young man from Afghanistan, Gool Badshah Mohamed, and his elderly friend, Indian camel driver, Mullah Abdullah staged the only attack launched against Australians within their own country during the First World War. The victims of their attack were the innocent townfolk of Broken Hill, travelling in a train to Penrose park, for the fifteenth annual New Year's day Picnic. On January 1, 1915, the two friends who claimed in a written confession discovered after the crime, to have "no enmity against anybody" opened fire on the train full of day trippers. An 28 year old woman was the first victim of the two outsiders who chose to fight under the Turkish flag. Alma Cowie was killed instantly, and by the end of the day, three of the men from the town were also dead. After the first round of shooting, the train stopped for a moment so that two men could run to a nearby home and telephone for the police. As soon as they had gone, the train headed for the Silverton Tramway Company's dam. Meanwhile, the gunmen made their way to an outcrop of quartz near the Cable Hotel, where they were soon surrounded by an army of vengeful locals. After hundreds of rounds of ammunition were shot at the "Turks," the renegades' position was rushed at 1 O'clock. The elder man was already dead, and his young friend, former icecream salesman turned killer, died a few hours later of his wounds at Broken Hill's Hospital. ■ Courtesy The Australian Book of Records, Silver Fern Press, Box 777 Mt Waverley Vic

CHINA'S BRUTALITY SCORECARD: NAZI GERMANY TIMES TEN

Since the Bolshevik Revolution in 1917, over 130 million people have been slaughtered by Communism. It is estimated that 60 to 80 million people died at the hands of the Communists in Soviet Russia. It is well known that the Communist Khmer Rouge in Cambodia slaughtered up to half the population of that country (2.5 to 3 million people). [readers should see the heart-rending film, The Killing Fields. McA].

THE WORLD'S MOST INCREDIBLE KILLING MACHINE

But what about the victims of Communism in China (or Red China, the now politically incorrect name the Peoples Republic of China carried for many years). The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee estimated in 1970 in a study on the "Human Cost of Communism in China" that the Chinese Communists had slaughtered between 34.3 million and 62.5 million people.

The SIS (the chief investigating arm of the US Senate up until the 1970s) estimates that 1.25 million people were killed in the Communists' war for "liberation" between 1945 and '49. Between 1949 and '58, 15 to 30 million were killed in Mao's political liquidation campaigns. During the Communist's "Great Leap Forward," the SIS estimated 1 to 2 million killed; in struggles with national minorities including Tibet, 500,000 to 1 million died; during the "Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution" and its aftermath, 250,000 to 500,000 were killed; and deaths in forced (slave) labor camps and frontier development were estimated by the SIS to be 15 to 30 million.

Communist Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung is generally credited with having abolished famine in China. This is paradoxical as he was responsible for the creation of a great famine in 1960-'62, following the Great Leap Forward in which (according to World View, May 1976 and the Christian Anti-Communist Newsletter, Sept '76) it is estimated that up to 50 million people died.

Time magazine (3/5/56), writing about the Chinese Communist carnage, said: "The figures stagger the imagination. In no previous war or human holocaust either in the days of Tamerlane or in the time of Hitler have so many people been destroyed in so short a period. Because it is hard for the mind to visualize so vast a slaughter, in human terms, the Communists have been able to reap an advantage from the very size of their funeral pyre. Many Westerners, finding the monstrous slaughter incredible and unbelievable, cannot see the blood on the pretended friendship proffered by the Chinese Communist leaders."

In 1959, Reverend Shihping Wang, East Asia director of the Baptist Evangelism Society International, testified as follows during congressional hearings on brutality in Red China

"All the elderly people 60 years of age and above who cannot work are put in the old people's 'Happy Home.' After they are placed in the homes they are given shots. They are told these shots are for their health. But after the shots are taken, they die within two weeks.

"After they die, the corpses are placed in vats. When the bodies decay, and maggots set in, the maggots are used to feed chickens. The remainder of the body is used for fertilizer. Old graves are also dug up and the bones used for fertilizer. In Hong Kong, the people do not eat chickens imported from the mainland because of the food fed to the chickens. To dig up graves is to sever family ties completely. Chinese people revere their ancestors. Digging up the grave is the Communist method of severing all connections with tradition and the past."

(McA NOTE: It is interesting that euthanasia is now legal in Washington State and soon to be nationwide. Abortion, then euthanasia, then the killing of anyone who opposed the regime or was politically incorrect was the way it started in nazi germany and Communist China. The "killing fields" could be part of our scene sooner than we think - a concept to which 38 million murdered (US) babies would surely testify to, if they could!)

THE CHINESE COMMUNIST SLAVE LABOR (GULAG) SYSTEM - Avraham Shirfrin, the Russian dissident living in Israel, has documented 1900 Soviet slave labor camps which hold millions of prisoners. He has published locations and photographed many of these camps in the Russian gulag over the years. Shirfrin and other experts have estimated that there are at least 3,100 slave labor camps in the PRC (today) using tens of millions of slave labor prisoners to produce much of the $45 billion in Chinese goods which Americans consumed in 1995.

Chinese born, American citizen Harry Wu, who spent 19 years as a prisoner in the Communist Chinese Gulag known as the laogai has identified 1100 of these forced labor camps and personally photographed many of same. Wu was imprisoned in 12 separate camps. In the camps, as his fellow inmates all died around him, Harry Wu went from 155 pounds to 80 pounds, grubbing for insects and raiding rat holes.

As he wrote: "Human life had no more importance than cigarette ash flicked in the wind... The laogai is not simply a prison system; it is a political tool for maintaining the Communist Party's totalitarian rule."
